Education in Ethiopia Teshome Wagaw,2025-10-01 The Ancient Greeks imagined it to be the abode of the gods scholars of the Middle Ages called it the land of Prester John the prophet Mohammed urged the faithful to seek refuge from religious persecution among the hospitable people of Abyssinia One of the oldest independent nations states in the word Ethiopia is little known or understood by the outside world even today In this book a native scholar and educator examines one area of Ethiopian history educational change Working from first hand sources personal experiences and archival documents Professor Wagaw analyzes the development of education in Ethiopia from an ancient rigid church controlled system to the modern public school system a product of changing times and public demand This is an invaluable source for those interested in Ethiopian culture and education those engaged in research in comparative education and those interested in the process of African and Third World modernization Faith-based Organisations in Ethiopia Aklilu Dalelo,Till Stellmacher,2012 As in other African countries the engagement of faith based organizations FBOs in the development sector in Ethiopia is tremendous and manifold FBOs are however still insufficiently integrated in the development discourse and often operate under the radar of international and multilateral donors This can be to a large extent reasoned by the fact that very little empirical research has hitherto been undertaken to assess the impact of FBO activities in Ethiopia Upon this background this study contributes to the debate among practitioners and researchers on the actual and potential contribution of FBOs to development in Ethiopia This is exemplified by the work of the Ethiopian Kale Heywet Church EKHC in rural areas of southern Ethiopia in the thematic fields of schooling ecological balance and food security Cross sectional and case study designs form the principal approaches used in the study both quantitative and qualitative methods were used On Results of the Reform in

Ethiopia's Language and Education Policies Catherine Griefenow-Mewis,2009 This publication reflects the results of the Ethiopian education reform as well as the exceptional efforts that multiethnic Ethiopia undertakes in order to cope with the challenges arising from the population explosion More than 55 per cent of the 77 million Ethiopians are under the age of 18 years The great social and political changes started in Ethiopia at the beginning of the 1990s have resulted in the substitution of the educational system based on Amharic and English by one which uses a multilingual approach According to the Ministry of Education 22 out of the 84 languages spoken in Ethiopia are now used as media of instruction in primary schools The book presents the lectures delivered at the workshop On the Results of the Reform in Ethiopia s Language and Education Policy held at Addis Ababa University in April 2006 by Ethiopian education experts and a German research team Their contribution has facilitated a subsumption into the historical context and has given insight into the analyses of the use of 8 Ethiopian languages in primary schools in different regions of the country Ethiopian Journal of Education ,2005
