Where he fought with his authoritarian dad, built a new family of antiestablishment post punk oddballs and ultimately knew he had to leave. But after Watts's career exploded in Seattle and New York, ultimately scoring him a nightly place next to James Corden on The Late Late Show, he found himself drawn back to his hometown after the deaths of his parents. This is his love letter to the town that made him. But like love itself, it's messy and complicated and dirty and beautiful and as weird and wonderful as Watts himself.
