Self-Directed Learning for the 21st Century: Implications for Higher Education Elsa Mentz, Josef de Beer, Roxanne Bailey, Per B. Bergamin, Chantelle Bosch, Adri du Toit, Roelien Goede, Aubrey Golightly, David W. Johnson, Roger T. Johnson, Corné Kruger, Dorothy Laubscher, Anita Lubbe, Jako Olivier, Christo van der Westhuizen, Sukie van Zyl, 2019-12-12 This book is devoted to scholarship in the field of self directed learning in the 21st century with specific reference to higher education The target audience of the book includes scholars in the field of self directed learning and higher education The book contributes to the discourse on the quality of education in the 21st century and adds to the body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning and specifically its role in higher education Although all the chapters in the book directly address self directed learning the different foci and viewpoints raised make the book a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning

Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo, 2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world Language and

Origin and Evolution of Precambrian High-grade Gneiss Terranes, with Special Emphasis on the Limpopo Complex of Southern Africa D. D. Van Reenen, 2011-01-01 Transactions of the Geological Society of South Africa Geological Society of South Africa, 1921 Vols 1 6 49 68 include its Proceedings Crustal Evolution of Southern Africa A. J. Tankard, Martin Martin, K. A. Eriksson, D. K. Hobday, D. R. Hunter, W. E. L. Minter, 2012-12-06 Syntheses of the geology of major areas of the Earth s crust are increasingly needed in order that the features of and the problems associated with the secular evolution of the continents can be understood by a wide audience Southern Africa is fortunate in having a remarkable variety of geological environments developed without many breaks over 3 8 Ga and many of the rock groups are household names throughout the geological world In one respect the geology of Southern Africa is particularly important cratonization clearly began as early as 3 0 Ga ago in contrast to about 2 5 Ga in most other continental areas such as North America This book documents very well the remarkable change in tectonic conditions that took place between the Early and Mid Precambrian we have here evidence of the very earliest development of rigid lithospheric plates This book is a tribute to the multitudes of scientists who have worked out the geology of Southern Africa over many years and decades Whatever their discipline each provided a step in the construction of this fascinating story of 3 8 Ga of crustal development In the book the reader will find a detailed review of the factual data together with a balanced account of interpretative models without the indulgence of undue speculation One of its attractions is its multidisciplinary approach which provides a stimulating challenge to the reader Learner Performance in South Africa Charles Edward Wickens Simkins, Andrew Paterson, 2005 South Africa has done well to systematically expand its educational system and to lengthen the schooling experience of successive learner cohorts But the quality of the output from the school system has been questioned In seeking to identify the reasons for this it is important to relate educational outputs competencies as measured for instance by examinations or standardized tests to inputs Determining the relative contributions of the inputs of the school the household and the individual learner to educational outputs is not straightforward particularly since very little educational production function analysis has been undertaken in South Africa Until recently no South African school data has incorporated test results school characteristics and information on the household circumstances of individual learners necessary for this kind of analysis However the results from a survey of a sample of schools involved in the large scale Quality Learning Project QLP funded by the Business Trust have yielded such data The QLP data set offers a new analytical opportunity to address the question What are the effects of social and economic variables on educational outcomes in the QLP schools Drum ,2009
