Stephen Hopgood

Grade 10 November 2013 Economic Memorandum:

Globalized Finance and Varieties of Capitalism H. van Zon, 2016-05-01 Hans van Zon analyzes the financialization of developed capitalism and argues that the emergence of finance as a dominant force has contributed to the relative decline of the West. He demonstrates that the neo liberal model is inherently unstable and undermines capitalist economies which can only function if they are embedded in institutions that are non or even pre capitalist. He shows how a toxic combination of financialization, corporate globalization and a deregulated and parasitic financial industry have led to structural economic stagnation in both the USA and the greater part of the EU.

Microplastics in the Marine Environment: Sources, Distribution, Biological Effects and Socio-Economic Impacts André Ricardo Araújo Lima,Juliana Assunção Ivar do Sul,João P. G. L. Frias,Cristina Panti,2021-06-09 Keepers of the Flame Stephen Hopgood,2013-07-15 If one organization is synonymous with keeping hope alive even as a faint glimmer in the darkness of a prison it is Amnesty International Amnesty has been the light and that light was truth bearing witness to suffering hidden from the eyes of the world from the Preface The first in depth look at working life inside a major human rights organization Keepers of the Flame charts the history of Amnesty International and the development of its nerve center

the International Secretariat over forty five years Through interviews with staff members archival research and unprecedented access to Amnesty International s internal meetings Stephen Hopgood provides an engrossing and enlightening account of day to day operations within the organization larger decisions about the nature of its mission and struggles over the implementation of that mission An enduring feature of Amnesty s inner life Hopgood finds has been a recurrent struggle between the keepers of the flame who seek to preserve Amnesty s accumulated store of moral authority and reformers who hope to change modernize and use that moral authority in ways that its protectors fear may erode the organization s uniqueness He also explores how this concept of moral authority affects the working lives of the servants of such an ideal and the ways in which it can undermine an institution s political authority over time Hopgood argues that human rights activism is a social practice best understood as a secular religion where internal conflict between sacred and profane the mission and the practicalities of everyday operations are both unavoidable and necessary Keepers of the Flame is vital reading for anyone interested in Amnesty International its accomplishments agonies obligations fears opportunities and challenges or more broadly in how humanitarian organizations accommodate the moral passions that energize volunteers and professional staff alike

From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government s plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government s plans The report also questions how well the Government s proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs The Government is also called upon to re think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards The report is critical of the Government s decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government s proposals

Subverting Consumerism Robert Crocker, Keri Chiveralls, 2018-07-24 There is now a widespread interest in reuse in many domains from opera houses built over old warehouses to vintage clothes and everyday goods incorporating repurposed materials or parts Despite its ubiquity this extensive creative work is typically seen in narrowly environmental terms as a means of reducing carbon resource use or waste However as this volume shows reuse

also has aesthetic and cultural dimensions and a rich social currency invoked to consciously subvert the accelerated consumer culture responsible for our unfolding environmental crisis In three parts the essays in this book consider reuse in terms of values aesthetics and meaning its application in contemporary urban and spatial settings and the revival of social practices involving a more conscious recourse to reuse and repair These are bookended by the editors essays the first on the significant relationship between reuse and technological and social acceleration evident in the surrounding consumer society and the last on the multiple forms of reuse deployed in a contemporary alternative building practice and their contributions to presenting alternative ways of living in the world Challenging dominant understandings of waste and consumption Subverting Consumerism shows how reuse has become a means for many to creatively engage with the past and to discover a continuity and sense of place eroded by the accelerative regimes of contemporary consumerism Becoming a means of resistance and offering a range of aesthetic social and economic possibilities reuse can be found to subvert and challenge the obsessive quest for the new found in contemporary consumerism

The Arts at a New Frontier Fannie Taylor, Anthony L. Barresi, 2013-03-09 Profound changes were taking place in American society during the period of the 1960s and 1970s when legislation for the National Foundation for the Arts and the Humanities was enacted and the agencies went into operation It was a period of soul searching by the American public when the cherished prejudices and civil inequities of the past decades were wiped out and old wounds began to heal at the same time however the Vietnam War was creating new fissures and antagonisms Into this newly healing newly questioning society congressional action thrust the National Council on the Arts in 1964 and the National Endowment for the Arts in 1965 Their mission was to encourage and support the arts and the men and women charged with this responsibility went about their work with the zeal and enthusiasm of religious converts The idea of even a minute amount of federal financial assistance to the country's chronically beleaguered and often impoverished artists and arts organizations seemed strange to a segment of the population that had existed in forgetful independence from government intervention Many of the nation's artists and arts leaders were wary partly because of the uncertainties and constraints of previous patterns of governmental support
