Introduction to Communication Course Book 1 S. Steinberg,1995 Introduces history and basics of human communication covering the communication process functions of communication language and communication non verbal communication interpersonal communication listening public speaking and mass communication Communication Research G. M. du Plooy,2002 Approaches to conducting advertising mass media audiences and mass media efficiency research in organizational and development contexts are detailed in this reference Among the topics covered are qualitative and quantitative approaches to research methodology the steps involved in the research process data collection and the procedures used in applying a research design and interpreting research data Designed to accommodate a variety of learning styles this book imparts the framework in which to acquire and develop research problem solving and communication skills and basic individual moral and ethical values Communication Studies - an Introduction S. Steinberg,2004-05-01 E.T. Hall's Statement 'communication is culture and culture is communication' Tobias Schiller,2013-12-03 Seminar paper from the year 2013 in the subject Communications Intercultural Communication grade 2 7 AKAD University of Applied Sciences Stuttgart language English abstract The statement communication is culture and culture is communication by Edward Twitchell Hall tries to sum up what culture and communication means and even how these words are connected with each other But how did he came to this conclusion and why did he believe in this relationship between communication and culture As a consequence another interesting question in this context could be What was first communication or culture On the following pages I would like to take a closer look at the statement by Edward T Hall In addition to that I will try to give specific examples to find out whether if this statement in my opinion is true or false Festschrift Rufus H. Gouws Willem Botha,Paul Mavoungou,Dion Nkomo,2013-06-01 The range of languages covered by the lexicographic investigations reported on e g Afrikaans English Northern Sotho Yilumbu Fang French and Dutch is a clear indication of the wide ranging influence of Rufus Gouws to whom the work is dedicated Organisational Behaviour, Communication, and Digitalisation in a Changing World Sam Erevbenagie Usadolo,Queen Emwenkeke Usadolo,Blessing Makwambeni,2025-06-06 This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners in organizational behaviour and communication to explore the complex relationship between employees and their organisations and the associated workplace outcomes This comprehensive volume provides insights theories and practical strategies to understand and address the multifaceted nature of organisational dynamics in the face of constant and accelerated change The first section of the book delves into the theoretical foundations of organisational behaviour Some of the contributors in this section offer a comprehensive analysis of the socio cultural and psychological aspects that influence individual behaviour within organisations Building upon this foundation the subsequent sections of the book examine various dimensions of organisational behaviour including leadership teamwork diversity and conflict resolution One of the focuses of this edited volume is the examination of emerging technologies and their effects on the operation of organisations Hence some of the chapters examine the management of employee organisations using digital platforms and explore employee engagement collaboration the effect of organisational support supervisor support or lack thereof By delving into the role of digital technologies in the context of a changing world the book offers valuable insights into the development of contemporary organisations especially how technology is leveraged to foster a sense of connectivity in dispersed work environments A Roadmap to Intercultural Proficiency Frauke Bender,2022-06-17 This book describes the linkage between the worlds of culture and inclusion based on the concept of intercultural proficiency IP It explains the building blocks of intercultural proficiency by providing a conceptual framework that combines and structures the existing knowledge base and extends it by incorporating the author s own empirical research work The framework presents not only a comprehensive and universal model based on existing concepts but also implications for learning and teaching strategies This book and the IP concept provide guidance for students early working professionals as well as seasoned working professionals on how to thrive and succeed when interacting with different cultures It allows us to think outside our narrow cultural boundaries and decode complex cross cultural interactions Thus the IP approach can be applied in academic and corporate settings as it facilitates potential for solution of the issues associated with multicultural workforces and global operations of organizations Ethics for Police Translators and Interpreters Sedat Mulayim,Miranda Lai,2016-11-18 This book examines the major theoretical foundations of ethics before zooming in on definitions of professional practice and applied professional ethics as distinct from private morals in general and then focusing on professional ethics for translators and interpreters in police and legal settings The book concludes with a chapter that offers a model for ethical decision making in the profession Performing Early Christian Literature Kelly Iverson,2021-10-07 Performance creates a unique space for audience experience and influences how traditions like the Gospels are received and interpreted Togetherness in South Africa J.M. Vorster,Nico Vorster,Jan A. du Rand,Riaan Rheeder,Dirk van der Merwe,Theuns Eloff,Ferdi P. Kruger,Reginald W. Nel,2017-11-24 Race and inequality have always been sensitive topics in South African society due to its colonial past diverse social composition and apartheid legacy of legal discrimination against people on the basis of their skin colour Racial tensions seem to be escalating in South African society and disturbing racialised rhetoric and slogans are re entering the political and social landscape Another disturbing phenomenon has been violent incidents of xenophobia against African immigrants The question probed by this book is What perspectives can theology offer in addressing the roots of racism inequality and xenophobia in South Africa and how can it and the church contribute to reconciliation and a sense of togetherness among South African citizens Various methodologies and approaches are used to address this question In chapter 1 Theuns Eloff employs a historical and socio analytical approach to describe the social context that has given rise and is still giving impetus to racism and other forms of intolerance in South African society Nico Vorster approaches the issue of distorted racial identity constructions from a theological anthropological perspective Utilising various empirical studies he attempts to provide conceptual clarity to the concepts of racism nationalism ethnocentrism and xenophobia and maps the various racisms that we find in South Africa His contribution concludes with a theological anthropological discussion on ways in which theology can deconstruct distorted identities and contribute to the development of authentic identities Koos Vorster provides a theological ethical perspective on social stratification in South Africa He identifies the patterns inherent to the institutionalisation of racist social structures and argues that many of these patterns are still present albeit in a new disguise in the South African social order Jan du Rand provides in chapter 4 a semantic discussion of the notions of race and xenophobia He argues that racist ideologies are not constructed on a factual basis but that racial ideologies use semantic notions to construct social myths that enable them to attain power and justify the exploitation and oppression of the other Du Rand s second contribution in chapter 5 provides Reformed exegetical and hermeneutic perspectives on various passages and themes in the Bible that relate to anthropology xenophobia and the imperative to xenophilia love of the stranger Dirk Van der Merwe s contribution analyses evaluates and compares both contemporary literature and ancient texts of the Bible to develop a model that can enable churches to promote reconciliation in society while Ferdi Kruger investigates the various ways in which language can be used as a tool to disseminate hate speech He offers an analytical description of hate language provides normative perspectives on the duty to counter hate speech through truth speaking and phronesis wisdom and concludes with practical theological perspectives that might enable us to address problematic praxis Reggie Nel explores the Confessions of Belhar and the Declaration of Accra as theological lenses to provide markers for public witness in a postcolonial South African setting The volume concludes with Riaan Rheeder s Christian bioethical perspective on inequality in the health sector of sub Sahara Africa This book contains original research No part was plagiarised or published elsewhere The target audience are theologians ministers and the Christian community but social activists social scientists politicians political theorists sociologists and psychologists might also find the book applicable to their fields   Radio Drama Tim Crook,2002-01-04 Radio Drama brings together the practical skills needed for radio drams such as directing writing and sound design with media history and communication theory Challenging the belief that sound drama is a blind medium Radio Drama shows how experimentation in radio narrative has blurred the dividing line between fiction and reality in modern media Using extracts from scripts and analysing radio broadcasts from America Britain Canada and Australia the book explores the practicalities of producing drama for radio Tim Crook illustrates how far radio drama has developed since the first audiophonic production and evaluates the future of radio drama in the age of live phone ins and immediate access to programmes on the Internet   ICLLE 2019 Syahrul R
