Beckstrom, 2013-03-01

As the Christian church moved from its inception in an Eastern Oriental culture westward across Asia Minor Turkey into Greco Roman culture with primarily a Western philosophy theology and values Jesus message and Paul s teachings began to be interpreted according to those cultural norms While Paul kept calling his churches back to their Jewish roots and Eastern values the Jewish voice was lost when the Jerusalem church dispersed as Israel fell during the Jewish Revolt of 66 73 AD The temple was destroyed its clergy silenced and Judaism seemed irrelevant to the growing Christian church The church had become primarily Gentile in theology and philosophy and its Hebrew foundation was largely forgotten and lost In Beyond Christian Folk Religion Beckstrom brings the reader back to Jesus roots Romans 11 17 23 and to the core of Paul s message Boaters of London Ben Bowles, 2024-05-03 London and the Southeast of England is home to an alternative community of people called boaters individuals and families who live on narrowboats cruisers and barges along a network of canals and rivers Many of these people move from place to place every two weeks due to mooring rules and form itinerant communities in the heart of some of the UK's most built up and expensive urban spaces Boaters of London is an ethnography that delves into the process of becoming a boater adopting an alternative lifestyle on the water and the political impact that this travelling population has on the state

Everyday Conceptions of Emotion J.A. Russell, José-Miguel Fernández-Dols, Anthony S.R. Manstead, Jane C. Wellenkamp, 2013-06-29 In Everyday Conceptions of Emotion prominent anthropologists linguists and psychologists come together for the first time to discuss how emotions are conceptualised by people of different cultures and ages speaking different languages Anger fear jealousy and emotion itself are concepts that are bound up with the English language embedded in a way of thinking acting and speaking At the same time the metaphors underlying such concepts are often similar across languages and children of different cultures follow common developmental pathways The book thus discusses the interplay of social and cultural factors that humans share in their development of an understanding of the affective side of their lives For researchers interested in emotion development of concepts and language cultural and linguistic influences on psychological processes

An Introduction to Human Geography James M. Rubenstein, 2008 Trusted for its timeliness and readability this book introduces geography by emphasizing the relevance of geographic concepts to human problems Two years after Rubenstein's Update Edition was created to encompass the events of September 11 2001 this revision also begins the careful process of putting those events into perspective Provides new Global Forces and Local Impacts boxes in each chapter that explore in depth an issue related to chapter material focusing on particular regions of the world Includes new material on medical geography terrorism mineral resources sustainable development conservation and biodiversity Presents new information on gender differences in development Expands material on Ethnicity relating ethnicity problems to political conflict also incorporates material previously found elsewhere in the book such as U S urban patterns and South Africa's history of apartheid For anyone interested in learning more about world geography pub desc Environmental Geopolitics Shannon O'Lear, 2018-03-12 This thought provoking and clearly argued text provides a critical geopolitical lens for understanding global environment politics A subfield of political geography environmental geopolitics examines how environmental themes are used to support geopolitical arguments and physical realities of power and place Shannon O Lear considers common problematic traits of such familiar but widely misunderstood narratives about human environment relationships Mainstream themes about human environment relationships include narratives about presumed connections between human population trends and resource scarcity ways in which conflict and violence are linked to resource use or environmental degradation climate security and the application of science to solve environmental problems O Lear questions these narratives arguing that the role or meaning of the environment is rarely specified humans role in these situations tends to be considered selectively and little attention is paid to spatial dimensions of human environment relationships She shows that how we tend to think about environmental concerns often obscure value judgments and constrain more dynamic approaches to human environment relationships Environmental geopolitics demonstrates how we can question familiar assumptions to generate more just and creative approaches to our many relationships with the environment

Human Geography William Norton, Michael Mercier, 2019 Human Geography explores how human behaviour affects the earth's surface and helps students draw connections between geography and topics such as politics, biology, economics, cultural studies, sociology, globalization, and climate change. Illustrated with a well-balanced mix of international and Canadian examples, it offers a comprehensive introduction to the discipline's essential concepts and methods. The tenth edition features 12 chapters (formerly 13 chapters: Introduction and Conclusion) in a structure that better reflects how courses are taught. Content formerly found in the Introduction, The Roads Ahead, Chapter 1 (What is Human Geography), and Chapter 2 (Studying Human Geography) has been condensed into a new Chapter 1. The other chapters in the book have been thoroughly updated and include the most current statistics and data and new coverage of urban issues, climate change, disability, refugees, and much more. All boxes in the tenth edition have been updated, and many boxes are completely new, offering students relevant, current information on a wide range of high-interest topics.
