La Petite Bijou:

Patrick Modiano ,2007-01-01 While his preoccupation with the period of the Occupation remains a permanent theme Patrick Modiano is increasingly interested in the exploration of time and memory and the attendant problem of reconstituting the past This volume explores all these features It casts new light on Modiano s earliest novels examines afresh his more recent work including his stories for children situates it in the context of contemporary writing and unravels the intricacies and subtleties of his style It underlines Modiano s position as one of France s major writers of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and will be of interest to all who are interested in the modern French novel and the complex interactions between fiction and history

Present Pasts Dervila Cooke,2005-01-01 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de l toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano s use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust

Patrick Modiano Akane Kawakami,2015-12-10 The most up to date and comprehensive critical study of Nobel Prize winning author Patrick Modiano

Balzac and the Model of Painting Diana Knight,2007 Texts about paintings painters and sculptors are obvious test cases for issues of representation A significant corpus of artist stories is scattered through Honore de Balzac s Comedie humaine which from Marx to Lukacs to Roland Barthes s enormously influential S Z 1970 has been a key literary work for critical debates around French realism In a series of close readings Diana Knight explores Barthes s model of painting the metaphorical code of painting and sculpture that underpins realist discourse in the context of Balzac s fictional representations of the relation between artists their models and their works of art Whereas critics have tended to denounce Balzac s realist aesthetic as complicit with the misogyny of the society he portrays Balzac and the Model of Painting takes the artist model relationship variously gendered in these stories as the focus of the author s powerful realist critique of the sexual politics of prostitution and marriage in nineteenth century France

Protean Selves Adrienne Angelo,2014-08-20 What does it mean to write I in postmodern society in a world in which technological advances and increased globalization have complicated notions of authenticity origins and selfhood Under what circumstances and to what extent do authors lend their scriptural authority to fictional counterparts What role does naming or conversely anonymity play vis vis the writing and written I What aspects of identity are subject to auto fictional manipulations And how do these complicated and multilayered narrating selves problematize the reader s engagement with the text Seeking answers to these questions Protean Selves brings together essays which explore the intricate relations between language self identity otherness and the world through the analysis of the forms and uses of the first person voice Written by specialists of a variety of approaches and authors from across the world the studies in this volume follow up a number of critical inquiries on the thorny problematic of self representation and the representation of the self in contemporary French and francophone literatures and extend the theoretical analysis to narratives and authors who have gained increasing commercial and academic visibility in the twenty first century French Fiction into the Twenty-First Century Simon Kemp,2010-07-15 Explores the state of French fiction through an examination of the work of five major French writers Annie Ernaux Pascal Quignard Marie Darrieussecq Jean Echenoz and Patrick Modiano This book deals with some of the writers on British and American university French courses Violent Histories David Gascoigne,2007 This series aims to publish new research monographs and essays into relationships and interactions between culture and identity The notions of both culture and identity are broadly conceived interdisciplinary and theoretically diverse approaches are encouraged in a series designed to promote a better understanding of the processes of identity formation both individual and collective Odysseys / Odyssées Jeanne M. Garane,2017-02-06 The volume explores diverse aspects of French language travel writing Arranged chronologically by topic the essays cover the medieval Anglo Norman story of the Irish traveller Saint Brendan s fantastical visit to hell the sixteenth century French expeditions to Florida the seventeenth century Dernières couvertes dans l'Amérique septentrionale de M de la Sale mises au jour par le chevalier Tonti 1697 the eighteenth century Histoire générale des voyages by l'abbé Prevost the eighteenth century Impressions d'Orient et d'Arabie written in French by the Polish count Wacław Seweryn Rzewuski nineteenth century tales of travel in Algeria by the orientalist painter Eugène Fromentin early twentieth century travel narratives by the modernist Blaise Cendrars the 1936 visit to the Soviet Union by Louis Ferdinand Celine and André Gide odyssean thematics in the late twentieth century work of Nobel prize winner Patrick Modiano the thematics of nomadism in the twentieth century writing of Albert Memmi and the thematics of travel in works by Bernard Ollivier Rachid Bouchareb Fatou Diome Christine Montalbetti Marie Ndiaye and Emmanuel Lepage OEuvres Complètes de H. de Balzac Honoré de Balzac,1877 Paths to Contemporary French Literature John Taylor,2011-12-31 Although the great French novelists of the last two centuries are widely read in America there is a widespread notion that little of importance has happened in French literature since the heyday of Sartre Camus and the nouveau roman Some might argue that even well read Americans are ignorant about what is happening in European literature generally Certainly there has never been so few translations of foreign books in the United States or so little coverage of foreign writers Curious American readers need new up to date information and analyses about what is happening elsewhere Paths to Contemporary French Literature is a stimulating and much needed guide to the major currents of one of the world s great literatures This critical panorama of contemporary French literature introduces English language readers to over fifty important writers and poets many of whom are still little known outside of France Emphasizing authors who are admired by their peers as opposed to those with overnight reputations John Taylor offers a compelling insider's view The pioneering essays included in this book offer incisive analyses of the ideas motivating current writing and delve into a writer's or poet's entire output Although some names may be familiar Marguerite Duras Hélène Cixous Philippe Jaccottet Henri Michaux the reader obtains fresh reappraisals of their seminal work Especially noteworthy however are Taylor's lively introductions to many other key writers who either have not yet crossed the English Channel let alone the Atlantic Combating the notion that French literature is overtly intellectual inaccessible or interested only in formal experimentation Taylor shows that many French writers are instead acutely inquisitive about the outside world shrewd observers of reality even very funny Although not conceived as a reference book the volume possesses some qualities of a reference work a good bibliography reliable dates and biographical facts Paths to Contemporary French Literature will be of interest to students of French literature and culture literary scholars and readers of contemporary fiction and poetry
