3. the cause – the 2 people in marriage are made responsible for each other for their life and well-being and share equally for each other's needs, but it means in law that you must spend the money and pay the bills for the children; under the system you can have custody of the child, but the other parent has the right to see the child and that you are both liable for the child
4. custody – the custody of the child is assigned to the one parent or the other. If you are the other parent, the other parent has the right to spend the money on the child and to have the child with them. When you have the child, you have the right to see the child and you are liable for the child for the time that you are with the child
5. joint custody – you and your spouse are both responsible for the child and you share the child equally and you are both liable for the child
