Exemplars, Imitation, and Character Formation Eric Yang, 2024-08-22 This volume examines the role and relevance of exemplars and the practice of imitation in character development and formation While the role of exemplars and imitation in spiritual and moral formation has been an integral part of many religious and wisdom traditions in recent times there has been limited theological and philosophical investigation into it and a dearth of interdisciplinary discussion The book brings together relevant research and insights from leading experts within philosophy psychology and theology with a slight emphasis on Christian approaches to exemplars and imitation especially given the reflection on these themes throughout the history of the Christian intellectual and mystical tradition Many of the contributions display an interdisciplinary approach into these issues hence this volume will be of interest to philosophers psychologists theologians and others who work in moral psychology and character formation

Designing Effective Feedback Processes in Higher Education Naomi Winstone, David Carless, 2019-06-27 Feedback is one of the most powerful influences on student achievement yet it is difficult to implement productively within the constraints of a mass higher education system Designing Effective Feedback Processes in Higher Education A Learning Focused Approach addresses the challenges of developing effective feedback processes in higher education combining theory and practice to equip and empower educators It places less emphasis on what teachers do in terms of providing commentary and more emphasis on how students generate make sense of and use feedback for ongoing improvement Including discussions on promoting student engagement with feedback technology enabled feedback and effective peer feedback this book Contributes to the theory and practice of feedback in higher education by showcasing new paradigm feedback thinking focused on dialogue and student uptake Synthesises the evidence for effective feedback practice Provides contextualised examples of successful innovative feedback designs analysed in relation to relevant literature Highlights the importance of staff and student feedback literacy in developing productive feedback partnerships Supports higher education teachers in further developing their feedback practice Designing Effective Feedback Processes in Higher Education A Learning Focused Approach contributes to the theory and practice of higher education pedagogy by re evaluating how feedback processes are designed and managed It is a must read for educators researchers and academic developers in higher education who will benefit from a guide to feedback research and practice that addresses well recognised challenges in relation to assessment and feedback

Isotopic Landscapes in Bioarchaeology Gisela Grupe, George C. McGlynn, 2016-03-10 This work takes a critical look at the current concept of isotopic landscapes isoscapes in bioarchaeology and its application in future research It specifically addresses the research potential of cremated finds a somewhat neglected bioarchaeological substrate resulting primarily from the inherent osteological challenges and complex mineralogy associated with it In addition for the first time data mining methods are applied The chapters are the outcome of an international workshop sponsored by the German Science Foundation and the Centre of Advanced Studies at the Ludwig

Maximilian University in Munich Isotopic landscapes are indispensable tracers for the monitoring of the flow of matter through geo ecological systems since they comprise existing temporally and spatially defined stable isotopic patterns found in geological and ecological samples Analyses of stable isotopes of the elements nitrogen carbon oxygen strontium and lead are routinely utilized in bioarchaeology to reconstruct biodiversity palaeodiet palaeoecology palaeoclimate migration and trade The interpretive power of stable isotopic ratios depends not only on firm testable hypotheses but most importantly on the cooperative networking of scientists from both natural and social sciences Application of multi isotopic tracers generates isotopic patterns with multiple dimensions which accurately characterize a find but can only be interpreted by use of modern data mining methods ECIE 2022 17th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship Pantelis Sklias,Nikolaos Apostolopoulos,2022-09-15 Innovation, Regional Development and the Life Sciences Kean Birch,2016-10-14 The life sciences is an industrial sector that covers the development of biological products and the use of biological processes in the production of goods services and energy This sector is frequently presented as a major opportunity for policy makers to upgrade and renew regional economies leading to social and economic development through support for high tech innovation Innovation Regional Development and the Life Sciences analyses where innovation happens in the life sciences why it happens in those places and what this means for regional development policies and strategies Focusing on the UK and Europe its arguments are relevant to a variety of countries and regions pursuing high tech innovation and development policies The book s theoretical approach incorporates diverse geographies e g global national and regional and political economic forces e g discourses governance and finance in order to understand where innovation happens in the life sciences where and how value circulates in the life sciences and who captures the value produced in life sciences innovation This book will be of interest to researchers students and policy makers dealing with regional local economic development
