Conceptualising Integration in CLIL and Multilingual

Education Tarja Nikula,Emma Dafouz,Pat Moore,Ute Smit,2016-08-18 Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL is a form of education that combines language and content learning objectives a shared concern with other models of bilingual education While CLIL research has often addressed learning outcomes this volume focuses on how integration can be conceptualised and investigated Using different theoretical and methodological approaches ranging from socioconstructivist learning theories to systemic functional linguistics the book explores three intersecting perspectives on integration concerning curriculum and pedagogic planning participant perceptions and classroom practices The ensuing multidimensionality highlights that in the inherent connectedness of content and language various institutional pedagogical and personal aspects of integration also need to be considered X-kit Fet G10 Business Studies , Studies in Educational Learning Environments Swee Chiew Goh,Myint Swe Khine,2002 The study of classroom and school learning environments and their effects on students learning has been going on for more than a century Past efforts in the study of the learning environment and its determinants have indicated that it plays a major role in improving teaching and learning in primary secondary and higher education This book covers various dimensions of the learning environment its underlying theory the impact on learning the curriculum and classroom management It is organized in such a way as to provide a cross national and multi cultural forum for presenting and discussing research findings as well as development and applications of various techniques and instruments in learning environment research It's Our Own Knowledge ,1989-01-01 A collection of papers presented at the Ontario Federation of Labour Conference on Education and Training in 1989 stressing the labour movement s continuing commitment to quality free public education The intention of the Conference and the tone of the papers is suggested by Gord Wilson s Preface We want education and training that encourages critical thinking not uncritical compliance with authority We want education that is oriented to the life long needs of people not the immediate economic desires of employers Our educational system s goal must not be the mirage of equality of opportunity We want equality of results in which all people will be better able to live fulfilling and meaningful lives at home in the community and at work The essays in It s Our Own Knowledge decry undue corporate influence in the education system advocating schools that prepare future workers to live full and rewarding lives An Our Schools Our Selves book Handbook of Research on Writing Charles Bazerman,2009-03-04 The Handbook of Research on Writing ventures to sum up inquiry over the last few decades on what we know about writing and the many ways we know it How do people write How do they learn to write and develop as writers Under what conditions and for what purposes do people write What resources and technologies do we use to write How did our current forms and practices of writing emerge within social history What impacts has writing had on society and the individual What does it mean to be and to learn to be an active participant in contemporary systems of meaning This cornerstone volume advances the field by aggregating the broad ranging interdisciplinary multidimensional strands of writing research and bringing them together into a common intellectual space Endeavoring to synthesize what has been learned about writing in all nations in recent decades it reflects a wide scope of international research activity with attention to writing at all levels of schooling and in all life situations Chapter authors all eminent researchers come from disciplines as diverse as anthropology archeology typography communication studies linguistics journalism sociology rhetoric composition law medicine education history and literacy studies The Handbook s 37 chapters are organized in five sections The History of Writing Writing in Society Writing in Schooling Writing and the Individual Writing as Text This volume in summing up what is known about writing deepens our experience and appreciation of writing in ways that will make teachers better at teaching writing and all of its readers better as individual writers It will be interesting and useful to scholars and researchers of writing to anyone who teaches writing in any context at any level and to all those who are just curious about writing

Studies from Interagency Data Linkages ,1979-11 Encyclopedia of Adolescence Roger J.R.

Levesque,2011-09-05 The Encyclopedia of Adolescence breaks new ground as an important central resource for the study of adolescence Comprehensive in breath and textbook in depth the Encyclopedia of Adolescence with entries presented in easy to access A to Z format serves as a reference repository of knowledge in the field as well as a frequently updated conduit of new knowledge long before such information trickles down from research to standard textbooks By making full use of Springer s print and online flexibility the Encyclopedia is at the forefront of efforts to advance the field by pushing and creating new boundaries and areas of study that further our understanding of adolescents and their place in society

Substantively the Encyclopedia draws from four major areas of research relating to adolescence The first broad area includes research relating to Self Identity and Development in Adolescence This area covers research relating to identity from early adolescence through emerging adulthood basic aspects of development e g biological cognitive social and foundational developmental theories In addition this area focuses on various types of identity gender sexual civic moral political racial spiritual religious and so forth The second broad area centers on Adolescents Social and Personal Relationships This area of research examines the nature and influence of a variety of important relationships including family peer friends sexual and romantic as well as significant nonparental adults The third area examines Adolescents in Social Institutions This area of research centers on the influence and nature of important institutions that serve as the socializing contexts for adolescents These major institutions include schools religious groups justice systems medical fields cultural contexts media legal systems economic structures and youth organizations Adolescent Mental Health constitutes the last major area of research This broad area of research focuses on the wide variety of human thoughts actions and behaviors relating to mental health from psychopathology to thriving Major topic examples include deviance violence crime pathology DSM normalcy risk victimization disabilities flow and positive youth development
