Doctor's Office Computer Prep Kit F.R. Jelovsek, 2012-12-06 Rick Jelovsek is one of the old timers in computer medicine developing and using computer systems for over 15 years At Duke University he developed one of the first computerized medical records for obstetrics and gynecology and collaborated with Drs Stead and Hammond in the development of billing and accounting systems A founding member and current officer of the American Association for Medical Systems and Informatics AAMSI he heads up and writes a quarterly newsletter for a special interest group in computers for the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists He is a genuine medical computernik I was asked as a favor to review his manuscript and suggest any needed changes before it was sent to a publisher He was not at that time planning to send it to Springer Verlag Reading it was one of those pleasures I usually associate with a review article that finally explains those things about a subject that I was aware of but never really understood I was familiar with practice billing for example but didn't really know the whys and hows of it all Doctor's Office Computer Prep Kit has filled the gaps in my knowledge with superb detail

Health Informatics: Practical Guide Seventh Edition William R. Hersh, Robert E. Hoyt, 2018 Health informatics is the discipline concerned with the management of healthcare data and information through the application of computers and other information technologies The field focuses more on identifying and applying information in the healthcare field and less on the technology involved Our goal is to stimulate and educate healthcare and IT professionals and students about the key topics in this rapidly changing field This seventh edition reflects the current knowledge in the topics listed below and provides learning objectives key points case studies and extensive references Available as a paperback and eBook Visit the textbook companion website at <http://informaticseducation.org> for more information Page 4 de la couverture
