Introduction to Criminal Justice

BRIAN WAS 15 THE FIRST NIGHT HE SPENT IN A JUVENILE HOME. The 10-bed dormitory room was half-full with five other boys—Harry, Dale, David, Wayne, and John (Brian's bunkmate). Brian was similar to the other boys in many ways. They ate a lot of food, hated doing their homework, and thought they knew everything about the world. Brian was different in one important way: He was there because his parents had become house parents in the juvenile home. The other boys were there because the courts had labeled them "in need of supervision" and sent them to the home.

During his first week in the home, Brian quickly learned about the "house rules." Wayne told him to sleep with his socks on or else Harry might "have sex with his feet" while he was trying to sleep. John showed him how to finish his daily chores each morning in time to have a few extra minutes before the bus came. David showed him that being nice to the other boys would keep him safe, an important point for Brian since he didn't want to get beaten up.

About six months after arriving at the juvenile home, Brian's parents announced that they were leaving their jobs there and returning to the town where Brian grew up. Brian later realized how much those six months had affected his life. Unfortunately, he lost touch with the boys who lived in the home and he never returned.
