

Instructional Coach position:

When screening a potential candidate for an Instructional Coach position, it's important to look for a combination of relevant experience, skills, and personal qualities. Here are some key areas to focus on and questions to ask during the screening process:

1. Experience in education and coaching:

- Can you tell me about your previous experience in education and coaching?
- What specific roles have you held in the past that relate to instructional coaching?
- How have you supported teachers in improving their instructional practices?

2. Knowledge of instructional strategies and best practices:

- How familiar are you with current instructional strategies and best practices?
- Can you provide an example of a specific instructional strategy you have used successfully with teachers in the past?
- How do you stay updated on the latest research and trends in instructional coaching?

3. Communication and interpersonal skills:

- Describe your approach to building relationships with teachers and gaining their trust.
- How do you effectively communicate feedback to teachers in a way that is constructive and supportive?
- Can you share an example of a challenging conversation you've had with a teacher and how you handled it?

4. Problem-solving and analytical skills:

- How do you identify areas for growth and improvement in teachers' instructional practices?
- Can you describe a time when you had to develop a customized plan to support a teacher's professional development?
- What steps do you take to monitor the progress and effectiveness of your coaching interventions?

5. Leadership and collaboration:

- How do you work collaboratively with administrators and other stakeholders to support teacher growth?
