MathXL for School Pearson Education, Inc, 2013 Handbook of Formative Assessment Heidi Andrade, Gregory J. Cizek, 2010-04-02

Formative assessment has recently become a focus of renewed research as state and federal policy makers realize that summative assessments have reached a point of diminishing returns as a tool for increasing student achievement. Consequently supporters of large scale testing programs are now beginning to consider the potential of formative assessments to improve student achievement. The mission of this handbook is to comprehensively profile this burgeoning field of study. Written by leading international scholars and practitioners each chapter includes a discussion of key issues that dominate formative assessment policy and practice today as well as those that are likely to affect research and practice in the coming years. Key features include Comprehensive nineteen chapters cover all aspects of formative assessment including classroom assessment large scale applications technological applications applications for special needs students K 12 and post secondary applications psychometric considerations case studies and discussion of alternative assessment formats such as portfolios and performance assessments Integrative thoughtful attention is given to the integration of large scale and classroom assessments Practical provides practical guidance on how to conduct formative assessments that generate credible information to guide instruction Global provides perspectives from leading international scholars and practitioners whose expertise spans diverse settings student populations and educational systems Accessible Style although grounded in the latest research the book's style and tone has been carefully crafted to make it accessible to both the textbook and professional markets It will also be a critical reference book for researchers in teacher preparation educational administration and educational policy studies

Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers Phares G. O'Daffer, Randall Charles, Thomas Cooney, 2005
