

SECTION A: COMPREHENSION

QUESTION 1 – 30 marks

Read both Text A and Text B and answer the next questions.

TEXT A

- Questions that the WorldCup-winning Springboks captain Siya Kolisi answered – came partly unexpected – in his inspirational autobiography Rise.
 - South African rugby player Siya Kolisi proves to be an inspiration in and off the pitch. Although the Black star is South Africa's rugby team's youngest player, 33 years, from humble beginnings to international stardom, Kolisi's life shows the power of achieving a positive mindset.
 - Here are questions we put to Siya Kolisi from his autobiography, Rise.
1. Who was the person that set him on the path to glory?
1. Kolisi makes no bones about it: "Without her, I wouldn't be here. That's not a figure of speech," Kolisi explains, talking about his grandmother Nkomo, who brought him up in the township of Dordos in the Eastern Cape city of Port Elizabeth. An remarkable woman, she was the "positive, loving, supportive and protective" influence in his toughest of times. She would never go without food herself to ensure Kolisi had enough to stave off his mother's hunger. She really did make sure that he was always full in the house.
2. What was his first sporting triumph?
2. Kolisi began playing soccer when he was 10 and loved playing goals, shooting himself above the bar, suspended in the air, making the goalposts quaking with the sound of his kick. He and his team-mates would share a goal just after a few weeks (that's about 25 points or 30 points between them when they won a tournament) against kids from another school in the township. They would then buy a few of vegetables – pieces of dough fried with sausage and cheese – as their reward. As often as not, though, he realised, it wouldn't end with a trophy, but a beating for breaking a promise.
3. What most attracted him to rugby?
3. A schoolboy? A township? No, what he wanted was to play rugby. When he was 14, he was writing the national school-leavers article for Dordos High School, performing their farewell famous pre-match challenge, the Haka at the 2007 World Cup. "To me, it was just another well-known tradition of cheering, high-jumping and eye-rolling, and it's connected with my friends on the day, and performed for my dad when he came home from work every evening," realised Kolisi.

12. What was the moment that changed his life?

11. Kolisi realised that he could no longer have lived a different, more traditional career as he got increasingly involved in his rugby and period working with other boys in the township. "I suddenly ended up at school with them, like only those two real options (job or sports or school)," he reflected. "It was during a session for a local rugby team, collective African Bantam, summer rugby training, something, but experienced coach called Sir George, proved an inspiration. "I thought that session exhausted, tired and bleeding, but I walked home on a machine. I was the most handsome thing I've ever done. From that moment on, I never looked back, and never looked another way again," Kolisi remembered.

13. What was his first team?

11. After Kolisi moved to a life-changing primary to attend Dore High School in Port Elizabeth, he joined the rugby Springboks team to train there, headed by Sir John Burger. "He was my hero, not just because I was almost like him, but because of the way he played. He was everywhere, always had his hand on the ball, he knew his tactics, played out goals and on the field, he was in the right position," he remembered. He was his first rugby mentor and Sir Burger for his support. Kolisi realised that he was a person who was a piece of paper in his hand, and he was not a person and he had got the situation that in this day, sometimes of his past possessions. "If you'd told me then that one day I'd be a star, I'd be not just my team-mate but also my friend, I'd have thought you'd lost your mind," realised Kolisi.

1. Who was the person that set Siya Kolisi on the path to glory? (3)
2. Quote one sentence from paragraph 1 to prove the subjects were correct. (3)
3. In your own words, explain "famed and famous" from paragraph 4. (3)
4. Explain what you understand the word "hero" from paragraph 11. (3)
5. Why was the training session with the African Bantams an experience for Siya? (2)
6. What is one of Siya's most prized possessions? (3)
7. Explain what it means to "be on cloud nine" – paragraph 11. (3)
8. Provide a suitable title for the above passage. (2)
9. Give a synonym for education in paragraph 8. (3)
