

Types of Phrases — English Grammar

The following study guide was created to explain the 5 main phrases that exist in the English Language: Noun Phrases, Verb Phrases, Prepositional Phrases, Adjective Phrases and Adverb Phrases. It also contains exercises for each section, with an answer key at the end.

1. Noun Phrases

It consists of a group of elements that function as a noun in a sentence. The NP requires the existence of a noun as the head, and it can be accompanied by determiners or modifiers.

See the following example:

➤ That very beautiful cat with black fur is mine

In blue, it can be seen a head. It is the central element of the NP and always consists of nouns or personal pronouns. The noun can be any type, including proper (e.g. Laura, Miguel, Hannah, Francia, New York) and common nouns (e.g. cat, table, mouse, space).

In green, it can be seen the use of a determiner. In a noun phrase can exist multiple determiners at the same time. These are used to determine what the noun is referring to and/or to indicate a quantity. There are 4 main types: (1) articles, (2) possessives, (3) demonstratives, and (4) quantifiers.

Articles	Possessives	Demonstratives	Quantifiers
A	My	This	One, two, three...
An	Your	That	Many
The	His, her, its	These	Few
	Our,	Those	Some
	Their		Etc.

In orange, it can be seen a pre-modifier as well as a post-modifier. Their function is to provide additional information to the noun. They typically are adjectives (e.g. beautiful, amazing, digital, red, black), adverbs accompanying the adjectives (e.g. surprisingly, very, extremely) or other phrases (e.g. in the window, at the back, with red hair).

It is important to remember that a noun phrase can have embedded another noun phrase, as it is the case in the modifier “with black fur”, where we have fur functioning as a head and black as a pre-modifier.
