Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms Jules, Janice E., Belgrave, Korah L., 2020-09-25 Linguists researchers and other practitioners in language education acknowledge that the resolution of language problems associated with breaking down language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of learners self identities and national identities is ongoing In fact even with decades of research in home language use in the classroom there are still classrooms worldwide where learners are deprived of the opportunity of building their self esteem confidence and autonomy by communicating with their native language The global nature of communication requires speakers to use all the languages in their repertoire effectively thus reinforcing the need to encourage home language use in classrooms

Transformative Pedagogical Perspectives on Home Language Use in Classrooms is a cutting edge research publication on the effective use of home language in the classroom that emphasizes the significance of this activity to the success of the overall language development of the learner Particular attention is given to transformative pedagogy and the provision of valuable insights into how the teacher can guide and assist learners in the development of critical thinking skills In addition the book provides content that enables practitioners in language education and parents to explore their roles in assisting children in breaking down the language and cultural barriers that hinder the growth of their self identity and national identity Highlighting topics such as engineering education cultural responsiveness and transformative pedagogy this book is essential for linguists academicians education professionals curriculum designers policymakers administrators instructional designers researchers and students

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from reimagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre

Being British Muslims Dr Mamnun Khan, 2019-04-22 This highly thought provoking book packed with incisive observations and analyses on a wide range of issues facing British Muslims offers concise yet extensive commentary on the cultural and intellectual contentions in contextualising Islam in the UK As of 2018 roughly 50% of the UK's Muslim population was born in the UK With this shift comes on one hand the loss of old ways of experiencing the world and navigating one's place within it and on the other hand it comes with the excitement and opportunity to make new culture The questions now facing British Muslims are From where can British Muslims get their inspiration and What should be the nature of this new culture These questions are becoming ever more important as the UK's Muslim population is expected to grow from 5% to 10% by 2050 Thus the author's clearly presented analysis provides critical and constructive insights for readers wanting to understand how to make faith more meaningful and relevant going from a largely immigrant ethnocentric religion and identity politics to one formed on intelligent and confident theocentric understanding Essential reading for anyone interested in Islam and British Muslims including policymakers community leaders philanthropists and activists as well as scholars and students of Islamic studies sociology cultural studies politics philosophy and identity This is a most refreshing and indispensable overview for anyone interested in the area

Commendations Dr Khan rejects the shallow identity politics which assume that British Muslims must either assimilate to western secular norms or react fanatically against them Instead he reminds us that all great religions demand an intelligent application of their principles to everyday life and demonstrates how this should be done in a series of thoughtful articles which not only offer informed judgements but encourage readers to think for themselves Dr Michael Sherborne author of HG Wells Another Kind of Life 2010 Mamnun is a young social analyst founder of grassroots initiatives and writer whose collection of articles are interesting insightful and pertinent His ability to question received wisdom analyse complex issues succinctly and offer possible solutions to the challenges facing British Muslims is refreshing and admirable Recommended reading Muhammad Mojlum Khan F R A S author of bestselling The Muslim 100 2008 The Muslim Heritage of Bengal 2013 and Great Muslims of the West 2017 This collection of thoughts observations and meditations provides a welcome perspective to the ongoing crystallisation of religiously inspired thinking in Britain it is in the spirit of communal deliberation and intellectual enquiry that this anthology constructively demonstrates how we might proceed Shaykh Muhammad Nizami British born Islamic scholar and political theorist Islam in the UK is at a fork in the road At the end of one turn is weakness irrelevance and eventual disappearance At the other end is confidence prosperity and illumination Dr Mamnun s timely series of short essays boldly and effectively makes the case for the latter May this work inspire positive action in those who are concerned by our current predicament and long for a return to godliness guidance and harmony Iqbal Nasim Chief Executive National Zakat Foundation

Languages and the First World War: Communicating in a Transnational War Julian Walker, Christophe Declercq, 2016-05-24 This book examines language change and documentation during the First World War With contributions from international academics the chapters cover all aspects of communicating in a transnational war including languages at the front interpretation translation and parallels between languages communication with the home front propaganda and language manipulation and recording language during the war This book will appeal to a wide readership including linguists and historians and is complemented by the sister volume Languages and the First World War Representation and Memory which examines issues around the representation and memory of the war such as portrayals in letters and diaries documentation of language change and the language of remembering the war

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Multilingualism Suzanne Curtin, Mary Grantham O'Brien, Rahat Naqvi, 2015-07-16 This research topic stems from the Interdisciplinary Approaches to Multilingualism conference which was hosted by the Language Research Centre at the University of Calgary It was the first conference of its kind which brought together the work of researchers educators and policy makers in the areas of first and second language acquisition from psycholinguistic and pedagogical perspectives The goal was to provide an opportunity for participants to engage with the implications of multilingualism from a range of perspectives including the effects of being bilingual from infancy to adulthood the process and benefits of learning multiple languages and the impact of multilingualism on society

Handbook of Home Language Maintenance and Development Andrea C. Schalley, Susana A. Eisenclas, 2020-06-22 Even a cursory look at conference programs and proceedings reveals a burgeoning interest in the field of social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development To date however research on this topic has been published in piecemeal fashion subsumed under the more general umbrella of bilingualism Within bilingualism research there has been an extensive exploration of linguistic and psycholinguistic perspectives on the one hand and educational practices and outcomes on the other In comparison social and affective factors which lead people to either maintain or shift the language have been under researched This is the first volume that brings together the different strands in research on social and affective factors in home language maintenance and development ranging from the micro level family language policies and practices to the meso level community initiatives and the macro level mainstream educational policies and their implementation The volume showcases a wide distribution across contexts and populations explored Contributors from around the world represent different research paradigms and perspectives providing a rounded overview of the state of the art in this flourishing field      Language, Society and Power Annabelle Mooney,Betsy Evans,2015-02-20 Language Society and Power is the essential introductory text to studying language in a variety of social contexts This book examines the ways language functions how it influences thought and how it varies according to age ethnicity class and gender It considers whether representations of people and their language matter explores how identity is constructed and performed and considers the creative potential of language in the media politics and everyday talk This fourth edition has been completely revised to include recent developments in theory and research and offers the following features A range of new and engaging international examples drawn from everyday life including material from social media and newspapers cartoons YouTube and television Two new chapters which cover Linguistic Landscapes including signs graffiti and the internet and Global Englishes exploring variation in and attitudes to English around the world Updated and expanded student research projects and further reading sections for each chapter Brand new companion website that includes video and audio clips links to articles and further reading for students and professors Language Society and Power is a must read for students of English language and linguistics media communication cultural studies sociology and psychology      The Routledge Handbook of Language Learning and Technology Fiona Farr,Liam Murray,2016-02-26 The exponential growth and development of modern technologies in all sectors has made it increasingly difficult for students teachers and teacher educators to know which technologies to employ and how best to take advantage of them The Routledge Handbook of Language Learning and Technology brings together experts in a number of key areas of development and change and opens the field of language learning by exploring the pedagogical importance of technological innovation The handbook is structured around six themes historical and conceptual contexts core issues interactive and collaborative technologies for language learning corpora and data driven learning gaming and language learning purpose designed language learning resources Led by fundamental concepts theories and frameworks from language learning and teaching research rather than by specific technologies this handbook is the essential reference for all students teachers and researchers of Language Learning and TESOL Those working in the areas of Applied Linguistics Education and Media Studies will also find this a valuable book      Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Multilingualism Simona Montanari,Suzanne Quay,2019-10-08 Multilingualism is a typical aspect of everyday life for most of the world s population it has existed since the beginning of humanity and among individuals of all backgrounds Nonetheless it has often been treated as a variant of bilingualism or as a phenomenon unique to individual areas of study The purpose of this book is to review current knowledge about the acquisition use and loss of multiple languages using a multidisciplinary perspective highlighting the common themes and stimulating insights that can emerge when multilingualism is viewed from different but related areas of investigation The chapters focus on research evidence showing that multilingualism is a complex phenomenon that involves a myriad of linguistic and extra linguistic forces and that should be studied in its own right as evidence of human potential and capacity for language The book is primarily addressed to students and scholars interested in deepening their understanding of the different facets of multilingualism including the individual and societal circumstances that contribute to it the cognitive and neural mechanisms that make it possible and the dynamics involved in the acquisition use and loss of multiple languages
