

Prayer to St. Benedict for Protection

Dear Saint Benedict, I thank God for showering you with His grace to love Him above all else and to establish a monastic rule that has helped so many of His children live full and holy lives.

Through the cross of Jesus Christ, I ask you to please intercede that God might protect me, my loved ones, my home, property, possessions, and workplace today and always by your holy blessing, that we may never be separated from Jesus, Mary, and the company of all the blessed. Through your intercession may we be delivered from temptation, spiritual oppression, physical ills, and disease.

In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault's early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault

Sanctity and Environment in Ethiopian Hagiography Abate Gobena, 2023-10-04 The original forests of the central and northern highlands of Ethiopia are almost entirely confined to the sacred groves surrounding the churches and monasteries of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church In Ethiopian tradition sanctity starts from the Tabot on the altar of the church and extends to the outer periphery of the compound Church forests serve as shade and shelter for the sacred and are seen as integral parts of the churchyard The Act of Gebre Menfes Qiddus GGMQ is an original Ethiopic hagiographic text It depicts the life and struggle of the saint in the wilderness of forests and mountains Hagiographic texts like GGMQ are in Ethiopia not mere historical records but texts linked to the daily liturgical services that shape and mould the perceptions and actions of their readers and listeners The aim of the thesis is to analyse how GGMQ presents the relation between the saint and the natural environment in order to see if there is a correlation with how the Ethiopian tradition has preserved the church forests and has considered these to be sacred spaces representing the wilderness The aim is achieved through a close reading of the text and its intertexts using four selected themes as analytical instruments ascetic estrangement coexistence with non human creation identification with the angels and reconciliation of opposites The analysis and the fact that the GGMQ is one of the most venerated texts read and heard with great liturgical solemnity show that there are good reasons to believe that the constant reading of GGMQ has made and makes a significant impact upon the readers views on the mutual co habitation of human and non human creation and the development of an awareness of the need to preserve the wilderness and non human creation The Sayings of the Desert Fathers ,1975-02-01 Give me a word Father visitors to early desert monks asked The responses of these pioneer ascetics were remembered and in the fourth century written down in Coptic Syriac Greek and later Latin Their Sayings were collected in this case in the alphabetical order of the monks and nuns who uttered them and read by generations of Christians as life giving words that would help readers along the path to salvation Sacred

Fictions Lynda L. Coon,2010-11-24 Late antique and early medieval hagiographic texts present holy women as simultaneously pious and corrupt hideous and beautiful exemplars of depravity and models of sanctity In Sacred Fictions Lynda Coon unpacks these paradoxical representations to reveal the construction and circumscription of women s roles in the early Christian centuries Coon discerns three distinct paradigms for female sanctity in saints lives and patristic and monastic writings Women are recurrently figured as repentant desert hermits wealthy widows or cloistered ascetic nuns and biblical discourse informs the narrative content rhetorical strategies and symbolic meanings of these texts in complex and multivalent ways If hagiographers made their women saints walk on water resurrect the dead or consecrate the Eucharist they also curbed the power of women by teaching that the daughters of Eve must make their bodies impenetrable through militant chastity or spiritual exile and must eradicate self indulgence through ascetic attire or philanthropy The windows the sacred fiction of holy women open on the past are far from transparent driven by both literary invention and moral imperative the stories they tell helped shape Western gender constructs that have survived into modern times The Practice of the Presence of God Martin Laird,Sheelah Treflé Hidden,2016-11-29 Exploring the unity of the practice of prayer and the practice of theology this book draws together insights from world class theologians including Rowan Williams Andrew Louth Frances Young Margaret R Miles Sebastian Brock and Nichola Sakharov Offering glimpses of the prayer life and witness that undergirds theological endeavour some authors approach the topic in a deeply personal way while others express the unity of prayer and the theologian in a traditionally scholarly manner No matter what the denomination of the Christian theologian Greek or Russian Orthodox Roman Catholic Anglican Methodist authors demonstrate that the discipline of theology cannot properly be practiced apart from the prayer life of the theologian The prayer of the theologian shapes her or his approach to theology Whether it be preaching teaching writing or research the deep soundings of prayer inform and embrace all On the Government of the Living Michel Foucault,2016-03-08 With these lectures Foucault inaugurates his investigations of truth telling in the ethical domain of practices of techniques of the self How and why he asks does the government of men require those subject to power to be subjects who must tell the truth about themselves Publisher s website pioneering study by Robert Hertz one of Durkheim's most eminent pupils The editor provides a wide ranging general and historical introduction and a 100 page annotated bibliography covering material on the subject in all disciplines and in four main languages Making and Breaking the Gods Troels Myrup Kristensen, 2013-06-30 Drawing on both textual and archaeological sources this book discusses how Christians in Late Antiquity negotiated the sculptural environment of cities and sanctuaries in a variety of ways ranging from creative transformations to iconoclastic performances Their responses to pagan sculpture present a rich window into the mechanisms through which society and culture changed under the influence of Christianity The book thus demonstrates how Christian responses to pagan sculpture rhetorically continued an old tradition of discussing visual practices and the materiality of divine representations Focusing in particular on the Egypt and the Near East it furthermore argues that Christian responses encompass much more than mindless violence and need to be contextualised against other social and political developments as well as local traditions of representation Philosophy of Desert Christians William Harmless, 2004-06-17 In the fourth century the deserts of Egypt became the nerve center of a radical new movement what we now call monasticism Groups of Christians from illiterate peasants to learned intellectuals moved out to the wastelands beyond the Nile Valley and in the famous words of Saint Athanasius made the desert a city In so doing they captured the imagination of the ancient world They forged techniques of prayer and asceticism of discipleship and spiritual direction that have remained central to Christianity ever since Seeking to map the soul's long journey to God and plot out the subtle vagaries of the human heart they created and inspired texts that became classics of Western spirituality These Desert Christians were also brilliant storytellers some of Christianity's finest This book introduces the literature of early monasticism It examines all the best known works including Athanasius Life of Antony the Lives of Pachomius and the so called Sayings of the Desert Fathers Later chapters focus on two pioneers of monastic theology Evagrius Ponticus the first great theoretician of Christian mysticism and John Cassian who brought Egyptian monasticism to the Latin West Along the way readers are introduced to path breaking discoveries to new texts and recent archeological finds that have revolutionized contemporary scholarship on monastic origins Included are fascinating snippets from papyri and from little known Coptic Syriac and Ethiopic texts Interspersed in each chapter are illustrations maps and diagrams that help readers sort through the key texts and the richly textured world of early monasticism Geared to a wide audience and written in clear jargon free prose Desert Christians offers the most comprehensive and accessible introduction to early monasticism

Chosen among Women Mary F. Thurlkill, 2008-01-15 Chosen among Women Mary and Fatima in Medieval Christianity and Shi'ite Islam combines historical analysis with the tools of gender studies and religious studies to compare the roles of the Virgin Mary in medieval Christianity with those of Fatima daughter of the prophet Muhammad in Shi'ite Islam The book explores the proliferation of Marian imagery in Late Antiquity through the Church fathers and popular hagiography It examines how Merovingian authors assimilated powerful queens and abbesses to a Marian prototype to articulate their political significance and at the same time censure holy women's public charisma Mary Thurlkill focuses as well on the importance of Fatima in the evolution of Shi'ite identity throughout the Middle East She examines how scholars such as Muhammad Baqir al Majlisi advertised Fatima as a symbol of the Shi'ite holy family and its glorified status in paradise while simultaneously binding her as a mother to the domestic sphere and patriarchal authority This important comparative look at feminine ideals in both Shi'ite Islam and medieval Christianity is of relevance and value in the modern world and it will be welcomed by scholars and students of Islam comparative religion medieval Christianity and gender studies

Saving Shame Virginia Burrus, 2013-04-19 Virginia Burrus explores one of the strongest and most disturbing aspects of the Christian tradition its excessive preoccupation with shame While Christianity has frequently been implicated in the conversion of ancient Mediterranean cultures from shame to guilt based and thus in the emergence of the modern West's emphasis on guilt Burrus seeks to recuperate the importance of shame for Christian culture Focusing on late antiquity she explores a range of fascinating phenomena from the flamboyant performances of martyrs to the imagined abjection of Christ from the self humiliating disciplines of ascetics to the intimate disclosures of Augustine Burrus argues that Christianity innovated less by replacing shame with guilt than by embracing shame Indeed the ancient Christians sacrificed honor but laid claim to their own shame with great energy at once intensifying and transforming it Public spectacles of martyrdom became the most visible means through which vulnerability to shame was converted into a defiant witness of identity this was also where the sacrificial death of the self exemplified by Christ's crucifixion was most explicitly appropriated by his followers Shame showed a more private face as well as Burrus demonstrates The ambivalent lure of fleshly corruptibility was explored in the theological imaginary of incarnational Christology It was further embodied in the transgressive disciplines of saints who plumbed the depths of humiliation Eventually with the advent of literary and monastic confessional practices the shame of sin's inexhaustibility made itself heard in the revelations of testimonial discourse In conversation with an eclectic constellation of theorists Burrus interweaves her historical argument with theological psychological and ethical reflections She proposes finally that early Christian texts may have much to teach us about the secrets of shame that lie at the heart of our capacity for humility courage and transformative love

Potency and Act: Studies Toward a Philosophy of Being Edith Stein, 2009 Potency and Act is the second of three works in which Edith Stein said she endeavored to fulfill her proper mission in philosophy her life's task relating the phenomenology of her teacher Edmund Husserl and the scholasticism of St Thomas Aquinas But more than critically comparing the two ways of thinking she wished to fuse them into her own philosophical system searching for that perennial philosophy lying beyond ages and peoples common to all who honestly seek truth More Information Edith Stein was a Jewish phenomenologist who became a Catholic after reading the autobiography of St Teresa of Jesus and entered the order of Discalced Carmelites founded by the saint Stein died in Auschwitz in 1942 and was herself canonized in 1998 as St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross Her philosophical thinking had been formed by Husserl but she came to find a home in Aquinas's thought world In Potency and Act she aimed to get from scholasticism to phenomenology and vice versa and allow the two ways of doing philosophy to come to resolution within herself The first of the three works in which she carried out her mission was a play where Husserl and Aquinas appear on stage to discuss their agreements and differences in Knowledge and Faith ICS Publications Edith Stein's Collected Works vol 8 The second Potency and Act was written in 1931 but published for the first time in 1998 The third was her major work Finite and Eternal Being written around 1935 and also published posthumously in 1950 Collected Works vol 9 Potency and Act is complementary to Finite and Eternal Being for they are quite different in content The approach to the study of being in Potency and Act is modal as the title implies her treatment of possible worlds and of form prescribing possibilities relates to phenomenological themes and also to recent developments in logical semantics Philosophy of religion of course is a central concern We reach God not only through faith and contemplation she says but by thinking using logical reasoning both from the world without as in St Thomas and from the world within the way of St Augustine indeed God's existence is also a purely formal conclusion Her many searching analyses are suggestive in their own right on human freedom temporality self knowledge individuality evolution which she fits into the scholastic world view atheism eschatology

Palladius of Helenopolis Demetrios S. Katos, 2011-11-17 This book examines the life work and thought of Palladius of Helenopolis ca 362-420 an important witness of late antique Christianity and author of the Dialogue on the Life of St John Chrysostom and the Lausiac History These compositions provide rich information concerning the downfall of John Chrysostom the Origenist controversy and many notable personalities such as John Chrysostom Theophilus of Alexandria Jerome Evagrius of Pontus and Melania the Elder The book examines Palladius' role as an advocate on behalf of John Chrysostom and it employs late antique theories of judicial rhetoric and argumentation issue or stasis theory the significance of which is only now becoming apparent to late antique scholars and elicits new insights from the Dialogue regarding the controversy that resulted in the death of John Chrysostom The book also demonstrates that the Lausiac History promoted to the imperial court of Pulcheria the ascetic practices of his ascetic colleagues whom Jerome had recently decried as Origenists The book delineates Palladius' understanding of asceticism Scripture contemplation prayer human freedom and theodicy to demonstrate a dependence upon the spirituality of his mentor Evagrius of Pontus and upon the broader theological legacy of Origen

Symbolic Blackness and Ethnic

Difference in Early Christian Literature Gay L Byron, 2003-10-04 How were early Christians influenced by contemporary assumptions about ethnic and colour differences Why were early Christian writers so attracted to the subject of Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians Looking at the neglected issue of race brings valuable new perspectives to the study of the ancient world now Gay Byron s exciting work is the first to survey and theorise Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians in Christian antiquity By combining innovative theory and methodology with a detailed survey of early Christian writings Byron shows how perceptions about ethnic and color differences influenced the discursive strategies of ancient Christian authors She demonstrates convincingly that in spite of the contention that Christianity was to extend to all peoples certain groups of Christians were marginalized and rendered invisible and silent Original and pioneering this book will inspire discussion at every level encouraging a broader and more sophisticated understanding of early Christianity for scholars and students alike
