Publications, 1918 Imperialism and Popular Culture John M. MacKenzie, John MacDonald MacKenzie, 1986 Popular culture is invariably a vehicle for the dominant ideas of its age. Never was this more true than in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries when it reflected the nationalist and imperialist ideologies current throughout Europe. When they were being entertained or educated the British basked in their imperial glory and developed a powerful notion of their own superiority. This book examines the various media through which nationalist ideas were conveyed in late Victorian and Edwardian times in the theatre, ethnic shows, juvenile literature, education, and the iconography of popular art. Several chapters look beyond the first world war when the most popular media, cinema and broadcasting, continued to convey an essentially late nineteenth century world view while government agencies like the Empire Marketing Board sought to convince the public of the economic value of empire. Youth organizations which had propagated imperialist and militarist attitudes before the war struggled to adapt to the new internationalist climate. Moomin Book 7 Lars Jansson, 2021-05-28 Return to Moominvalley in the seventh volume of the classic comic by Lars Jansson. In this volume of the Complete Lars Jansson comic strip, Lars's work already quite polished, takes on a joie de vivre heretofore unseen. The Moomins rebel once more against hibernation, receive an inheritance they're unprepared for, find colonization a bit of a bore, and decide once and for all that seashells are much prettier than gold nuggets. With familiar jabs aimed at Moomin leg length and somewhat less familiar ones aimed at capitalism and colonial politics, Jansson's comics are timeless treasures for the whole family.

Healers in World War II Patricia W. Sewell, 2017-07-06 Dr Logan W. Hovis parachuted onto Corregidor with the 503rd Regimental Combat Team. Breeding, five feet tall, 100 pounds, served with the 174th General Hospital in France. Dr Vincent Stephen Conti was awarded a Bronze Star for fighting typhus in Naples, Italy. These accounts and 31 others covering the heroics of 44 individuals working in the Medical Corps are gathered here by editor Patricia W. Sewell. Firsthand accounts are given by doctors, nurses, ambulance drivers, front-line medics, Navy corpsmen, medical personnel who served on air evacuation teams and hospital ships, and others who functioned in many different capacities. Autobiographies, interviews, letters, and cassette tapes helped compose most of these narratives. Orca Currents Resource Guide Kate Hill, Susan Greye, 2009-09-01 Orca Soundings are teen novels for reluctant readers.
