Arrowsmith was a country girl whose idea of a hairdo was tying a ponytail whenever she wanted to go horse riding. But in her early twenties she left her sleepy hometown of Albury on the NSW Victoria border for the bright lights of the Gold Coast and soon found herself working in a succession of unexciting jobs just to keep up with her now glamorous lifestyle. After spending two years as a frazzled receptionist for an adult entertainment agency, Kellie decided to stop booking the jobs and start taking them. So it was that she found herself travelling to Gove, a mining town in East Arnhem Land, where she had her first stint as a skimpy barmaid who wears not much clothing for big money. Skimpies can work in the NT, in WA, in the Hunter Valley of NSW wherever there's a bunch of blokes with a fly-in-fly-out lifestyle who enjoy a cold beer at the end of their shift. Kellie thought her new job would take her all round the country but she hadn't planned on falling in love, not with Dave, a rough and tumble outback character with a big heart and the world's worst four-wheel drive, and not with the Northern Territory way of life. But she did, and instead of diamonds and dust, Kellie got crocodiles and denim cut-offs and a whole lot of stories to tell about a side of outback life that's a long way off the beaten track.
