Futrell, Donald F. Shafer, Linda Shafer, 2002 Annotation Drawing on best practices identified at the Software Quality Institute and embodied in bodies of knowledge from the Project Management Institute the American Society of Quality IEEE and the Software Engineering Institute Quality Software Project Management teaches 34 critical skills that allow any manager to minimize costs risks and time to market Written by leading practitioners Robert T Futrell Donald F Shafer and Linda I Shafer it addresses the entire project lifecycle covering process project and people It contains extensive practical resources including downloadable checklists templates and forms Mastering Self-Motivation Michael J. Provitera, 2012-12-07 The surge of motivational titles flooding bookstore shelves amid the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression is evidence of our society's growing obsession with self improvement Recently two areas of growing interest among academics have been positive organizational behavior and psychological capital While books on these subjects have led to a new understanding of motivation they have limited their focus to two ends of a continuum This book pays heed to the extensive research and careful conclusions of academicians and then crosses into the realm of self help and massmarket literature It has nine chapters that blend topics being taught over two decades in the classroom and practiced in management consulting Each chapter invites you to learn both theoretical and practical concepts and encourages you to apply this knowledge to the workplace This book thus seeks to mediate market driven self help dreams and academic literature and provides theoretical concepts that can enhance individual motivation presented in a comprehensive and enjoyable manner This is the first motivational book that brings together the academic and popular literature to bridge the gap between common sense and theoretical concepts PSYCHOLOGY HARDEEP KAUR SHERGILL, 2010-05-25 Designed for the undergraduate students of psychology this comprehensive text presents the fundamental principles and concepts of psychology. It discusses in detail various human behavioural patterns. The book describes the nature, goals and different schools of psychology. It explains various methods of psychological research such as experimental observation, interview, questionnaire and case study methods. Besides describing the biological bases of human behaviour, it examines different types of psychological tests which are conducted to differentiate one individual from another. This student-friendly book also elaborates the processes of learning and memory, the nature and types of memory and other important aspects of human behaviour such as motivation, emotion and intelligence. The James-Lange and Cannon-Bard theories of emotion, psychometric theory and cognitive theory of intelligence are also thoroughly dealt with. Finally, different concepts of personality and techniques of assessment of personality are explained. Key Features: Includes a number of figures and illustrations to clarify the concepts. Gives interesting facts and health tips. Provides chapter-end exercises for practice. Offers several examples for easy understanding of the subject matter.

Building, Defending, and Regulating the Self Abraham Tesser, Joanne V. Wood, Diederik A. Stapel, 2005-07-05. This volume pulls together research on several aspects of the self. One set of chapters deals with the importance of building a self based on authenticity and Who I really am; a second group deals with the ways in which we defend views of the self as positive and powerful; a third group is concerned with multiple aspects of self-regulation. Each of the chapters is a well-written, non-technical description of an important, currently active research program.

Studying Designers'05 John S. Gero, Nathalie Bonnardel, 2005. Handbook of Research on Student Engagement Sandra L. Christenson, Amy L. Reschly, Cathy Wylie, 2012-02-23. For more than two decades, the concept of student engagement has grown from simple attention in class to a construct comprised of cognitive, emotional, and behavioral components that embody and further develop motivation for learning. Similarly, the goals of student engagement have evolved from dropout prevention to improved outcomes for lifelong learning. This robust expansion has led to numerous lines of research across disciplines and are brought together clearly and comprehensively in the Handbook of Research on Student Engagement. The Handbook guides readers through the field's rich history, sorts out its component constructs, and identifies knowledge gaps to be filled by future research. Grounding data in real-world learning situations, contributors analyze indicators and facilitators of student engagement, link engagement to motivation, and gauge the impact of family, peers, and teachers on engagement in elementary and secondary grades. Findings on the effectiveness of classroom interventions are discussed in detail. And, because assessing engagement is still a relatively new endeavor, chapters on measurement methods and issues round out this important resource. Topical areas addressed in the Handbook include: Engagement across developmental stages; Self-efficacy in the engaged learner; Parental and social influences on engagement and achievement motivation; The engaging nature of teaching for competency development; The relationship between engagement and high-risk behavior in adolescents; Comparing methods for measuring student engagement. An essential guide to the expanding knowledge base, the Handbook of Research on Student Engagement serves as a valuable resource for researchers scientist practitioners and graduate students in such varied fields as clinical child and school psychology educational psychology public health teaching and teacher education social work and educational policy E-education Applications Claude Ghaoui,2004-01-01 This work enforces the need to take multi disciplinary and or inter disciplinary approaches when solutions for e education or online e learning are introduced The text is aimed at researchers and practitioners from academia industry and government

Psyche of Asian Society Aradhana Shukla,Anubhuti Dubey,Narendra Singh Thagunna,2019-01-01 Every culture has its own values and of course they are different in every walk of life with more or less magnitude We can see a lot of variation in two cultures in regard to their way of thought way of behaviour parameters and so many other things Asia is a big continent and it covers fourty eight countries in its roof These countries are somehow similar in traditions and behaviour performance and vice versa in some other respects of life But it is quite sure that there is a common thread that links them in one single garland The aim of this volume is to collect the gems from entire Asia and bring them on one platform There are twenty four articles in this volume They reveal various aspects of the particular country where the work is done Chapters are in theoretical and or in empirical mode and we hope that they will provide good insight to the readers to move on their interest and research Warriors of the Millennium Alfred Willowhawk,2017-08-28 Creating and maintaining balance in the 21st century can be difficult We are inundated with noise to distract us Warriors of the Millennium quiet this noise so that they can make choices that are in one s own interest Take back control of your life from those who would take it from you

Human Motivation Robert E. Franken,1998 Written for undergraduate psychology majors this new edition of a text which discusses the biological and mental underpinnings of human motivation The material is organized into four sections which examine the major theories of motivation analyze several basic motivational systems from a components perspective explore the role that emotions play and present the theory of growth motivation which states that organisms are motivated towards growth and development Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Sustainable Futures for Higher Education Jaan Valsiner,Anastasiia Lutsenko,Alexandra Antoniouk,2018-09-26 This volume addresses the current situation in higher education and what creative action needs to be taken for the future development of the various systems of higher education Higher education in the 21st centuries is under immense pressure from various sides First there is dramatic limitation of funding from public sources and limited and selective funding support from private sources that is re constructing the landscape of higher education in most societies around the World Secondly there is the continuous stream of administrative re organization efforts of political origins e g the Bologna process that guide the advancement of higher education in our present time Increasing privatization of all forms of higher education from bachelor to doctoral levels and its corresponding focus on the advancement of the kind of knowledge that has immediate applicability in various spheres of societies leads to the question what kind of creativity is expected from the new cohorts of students future makers of knowledge once the current social re organization of higher education systems becomes fully established To address these questions the international interdisciplinary cast of authors in this volume provides a multitude of possible scenarios for future development of the systems of higher education This book on Sustainable Futures of Higher Education captures the current trends and perspectives of the Knowledge Makers from various nations of the world on meeting and greeting the challenges of globalization and the pressures of the knowledge economy It makes a strong case for universities of tomorrow sustaining their autonomous thinking and yet nurturing an environment of collaborative partnership with society corporate and industry to fuel innovations in plenty and continuous supply of new science and technologies Higher Education has been and shall remain a powerful vehicle of national and global transformation I see a great value of the publication in impacting the minds of the leaders in higher education around the globe for revitalizing the universities Professor P B Sharma President of Association of Indian Universities AIU How should the higher education system be in the globalization era In this book Jaan Valsiner and his colleagues analyze criticize the existing and propose a new higher education system When we say higher education three different layers are supposed to be there the lower the middle and the higher The latter has the function of production of new knowledges Without new knowledge our societies are never improving Authors warn commercialized systems such as the Bologna system overestimate the homogeneity of education Universities without Borders would guarantee both diversity and innovation in the higher education systems Professor Tatsuya Sato Dean of Research Ritsumeikan University

Gaining Control Robert Aunger, Valerie Curtis, 2015-03-26 Gaining control tells the story of how human behavioral capacities evolved from those of other animal species Exploring what is known about the psychological capacities of other groups of animals the authors reconstruct a fascinating history of our own mental evolution In the book the authors see mental evolution as a series of steps in which new mechanisms for controlling behavior develop in different species starting with early representatives of this kingdom and leading to a species us that can engage in a large number of different types of behavioral control Key to their argument is the idea that each of these steps from reflexes to instincts drives emotions and cognitive planning can be seen as a novel type of psychological adaptation in which information is inherited by an animal from its own behavior through new forms of learning a form of major evolutionary transition Thus the mechanisms that result from these steps in increasingly complex behavioral control can also be seen as the fundamental building blocks of psychology Such a perspective on behaviour has a number of implications for practitioners in fields ranging from experimental psychology to public health Short provocative and insightful this book will be of great interest and use to evolutionary psychologists and biologists anthropologists and the scientific community as a whole
