Human Development A Life Span View:

Human Development Robert V. Kail, John C. Cavanaugh, 2000 With skill and enthusiasm respected authors and noted researchers Robert V Kail and John C Cavanaugh tell a comprehensive and engaging story of life in HUMAN DEVELOPMENT A LIFESPAN VIEW SECOND EDITION Experts in child development and adulthood and aging respectively Kail and Cavanaugh relate the fascinating story of the human lifespan Their streamlined approach eliminates the redundancy of describing the lifespan via the traditional organizational structure used by many texts for the course Instead Kail and Cavanaugh employ a four part structure that covers early childhood the school years the working raising children years and later life This accurate and lively depiction of the developmental process helps students make better sense of our most intriguing and intricate journey life Providing full coverage of child and adult development within a modified chronological framework Kail and Cavanaugh help students make the connections between chapters by emphasizing the dynamic interplay of biological psychological and social forces on development This integrated biopsychosocial approach not only address the needs of many instructors but also helps students understand how each element of development impacts the others And unlike other lifespan texts which devote 40% or less of their coverage to adulthood and aging HUMAN DEVELOPMENT A LIFESPAN VIEW devotes as much coverage to adulthood and aging as to childhood and adolescence all in 15 manageable chapters

Human Development Robert V. Kail, John C. Cavanaugh, 2010 The authors provide theoretical and empirical foundations that enable students to become educated critical interpreters of developmental information A blend of basic and applied research as well as coverage of controversial topics and emergent trends demonstrates connections between the laboratory and life

Life-span Developmental Psychology E. Mark Cummings, Anita L. Greene, Katherine H. Karraker, 2014-01-02 Although there has been a significant increase in studies of stress and coping processes in recent years researchers have often approached these topics from rather narrow and constrained perspectives Furthermore little communication has occurred across disciplines and research directions resulting in the emergence of several relatively isolated literatures An outgrowth of the Eleventh Biennial West Virginia University Conference on Life Span Development this volume emphasizes two major themes the importance of taking a life span approach to the study of stress and coping and the development of new and more complete conceptual models of stress and coping processes The first to approach these subjects from a life span perspective this book includes papers by distinguished researchers from each of the major periods of the life span and brings together the cognitive and socioemotional traditions in the study of dealing with pressures The editors hope that this facilitation of communication among researchers with diverse views will help create a broadening and integration of perspectives

Career Development Fred W. Vondracek, Richard M. Lerner, John E. Schulenberg, 2019-01-22 This book places career development into the mainstream of human development research and theory The result is a powerful synthesis of vocational psychology and the most recent advances in lifespan developmental psychology thus offering a developmental contextual framework for guiding theory and research in career development Its chapters demonstrate the utility of this framework for the study of women s career development health and careers career intervention and the selection and application of appropriate research methodologies Scholars as well as intervention specialists should find this volume to be of great value The adaption of this developmental contextual framework for career development theory research and intervention may represent an important future for vocational psychology and the study of career development Life-Span Development and Behavior
