TV Guide ,2007 The Homebrewed Christianity Guide to God Eric E. Hall,2016-11-01 Is God the First Cause The Unmoved Mover Mr Miyagi In this latest installment of the Homebrewed Christianity series edited by Tripp Fuller Eric E Hall approaches the question of God from various perspectives including philosophy personal revelation Christian tradition and other religions The classical conception of God is like the famously stoic yet lethal character in the Karate Kid Competing versions of God include Your Hippie Aunt St Joan of Arc and even the muscle headed goons from Jersey Shore Hall uses each of these analogies to elucidate a version of God that has held sway at one point or another For each he shows strengths and weaknesses pros and cons After proposing this nouveau pantheon Hall takes on atheism religion versus science and popular images of Jesus At the end of this romp through history and pop culture Hall argues that the God you need may be the very God you rejected years ago Spd 41 , This book celebrates the most outstanding editorial design produced in 2005 It is an essential reference tool for all graphic designers educators students and editors Jacket Television Variety Shows David M. Inman,2014-12-03 For the few hundred television viewers in 1946 a special treat on the broadcast schedule was the variety show called Hour Glass It was the first TV program to go beyond talking heads cooking demonstrations and sporting events featuring instead dancers comics singers and long commercials for its sponsor Chase and Sanborn coffee Within two years another variety show Texaco Star Theatre became the first true television hit and would be credited with the sales of thousands of television sets The variety show formula was a staple of television in its first 30 years in part because it lent itself to a medium where everything had to be live and preferably inside a studio Most of the early television stars including Jackie Gleason Milton Berle Sid Caesar Ed Sullivan Red Skelton Dinah Shore and Arthur Godfrey rose to prominence through weekly variety shows In the 1960s major stars such as Jerry Lewis Dean Martin Judy Garland and Danny Kaye were hosting variety shows By the 1970s the format was giving way to sitcoms and dramas but pop music stars Sonny and Cher Tony Orlando and Dawn and Donny and Marie Osmond hosted some of the last of the species This book details 57 variety shows from the 1940s through the 1990s A history of each show is first provided followed by a brief look at each episode Air date guest stars sketches performed and a listing of songs featured are included Clinician's Guide to Bipolar Disorder David J. Miklowitz,Michael J. Gitlin,2015-07-07 This much needed volume gives clinicians essential strategies for managing the complexities of bipolar disorder and tailoring treatment to each patient s changing needs Highly readable accessible and pragmatic the book provides expert guidance on critically important treatment questions It addresses which medications to try and at what dosages what psychosocial interventions are most helpful at different phases of the illness how to continually monitor and fine tune treatment to keep patients functioning well and how to involve family members productively The authors draw on state of the art research as well as extensive clinical experience as a psychotherapist and a psychopharmacologist Vivid case material is included throughout Reproducible questionnaires and forms can be downloaded

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by 20th Century Fox Television Wikipedia contributors, Television Finales Douglas L. Howard,David Bianculli,2018-11-13 Today more than ever series finales have become cultural touchstones that feed watercooler fodder and Twitter storms among a committed community of viewers While the final episodes of The Fugitive and M A S H continue to rank among the highest rated broadcasts more recent shows draw legions of binge watching fans Given the importance of finales to viewers and critics alike Howard and Bianculli along with the other contributors explore these endings and what they mean to the audience both in terms of their sense of narrative and as episodes that epitomize an entire show Bringing together a veritable who s who of television scholars journalists and media experts including Robert Thompson Martha Nochimson Gary Edgerton David Hinckley Kim Akass and Joanne Morreale the book offers commentary on some of the most compelling and often controversial final episodes in television history Each chapter is devoted to a separate finale providing readers with a comprehensive survey of these watershed moments Gathering a unique international lineup of journalists and media scholars the book also offers readers an intriguing variety of critical voices and perspectives Guide to the Turf Ruff William,1880 Carson the Magnificent Bill Zehme,2024-11-05 The definitive biography of Johnny Carson the entertainer who redefined late night television and American culture told through intimate insights and riveting accounts of his legendary career and complex personal life In 2002 Bill Zehme landed one of the most coveted assignments for a magazine writer an interview with Johnny Carson the only one he d granted since retiring from hosting The Tonight Show a decade earlier Zehme was tapped for the Esquire feature story thanks to his years of legendary celebrity profiles and the resulting piece portrayed Carson as more human being than American TV icon

Following Carson's passing in 2005 Zehme embarked on an exhaustive nearly decade long research journey interviewing dozens of Carson's colleagues and friends to craft this immensely informative and insightful The Minnesota Star Tribune biography although his efforts were halted by a cancer diagnosis When he died in 2023 his obituaries mentioned the Carson book with New York Times comedy critic Jason Zinoman calling it one of the great unfinished biographies Yet the hundreds of pages Zehme managed to complete are astounding both for the caliber of their writing and how they illuminate one of the most legendary talk show hosts of all time A man who brought so much joy and laughter to so many millions but was himself exceedingly shy and private Zehme traces Carson's rise from a magic obsessed Nebraska boy to Navy ensign in World War II to a burgeoning radio and TV personality to eventually host of The Tonight Show which he transformed along with the entirety of American popular culture over the next three decades Without Carson there would be no late night television as we know it On a much more intimate level Zehme also captures the turmoil and anguish that accompanied the success four marriages troubles with alcohol and the devastating loss of a child In one passage Zehme notes that when asked by an interview in the mid 80s for the secret to his success Carson replied simply Be yourself and tell the truth Completed with the help from journalist and Zehme's former research assistant Mike Thomas Carson the Magnificent offers just that an honest assessment of who Johnny Carson really was

Rube Tube Sara K. Eskridge, 2018-11-30 Historian Sara Eskridge examines television's rural comedy boom in the 1960s and the political social and economic factors that made these shows a perfect fit for CBS The network nicknamed the Communist Broadcasting System during the Red Scare of the 1940s saw its image hurt again in the 1950s with the quiz show scandals and a campaign against violence in westerns When a rival network introduced rural themed programs to cater to the growing southern market CBS latched onto the trend and soon reestablished itself as the Country Broadcasting System Its rural comedies dominated the ratings throughout the decade attracting viewers from all parts of the country With fascinating discussions of The Andy Griffith Show The Beverly Hillbillies Petticoat Junction and other shows Eskridge reveals how the southern image was used to both entertain and reassure Americans in the turbulent 1960s
