Mirza,1970 The West Pakistan Civil List ,1968 Decline of Muslim States and Societies Misbah Islam,2008-05-01 Any discussion about Islam these days bring about deep passions both overt and latent On both sides of the divide the main common factor is that of fear Apparently this antagonism is between unequals One side claims technological and material prowess within a civilized society while the other claims righteousness of their cause and the spirit of their faith All this has given rise to the phenomenon of global heating that has elevated the global temperature in terms of fear intolerance terrorism and open warfare Reproduction and Biopolitics Silvia De Zordo,Milena Marchesi,2016-02-05 The central theme of this volume is the notion of irrational reproduction the ways in which women s and couples reproductive choices and practices are deemed irrational or irresponsible because they result in the wrong number of children In a global context of declining fertility population policies have shifted to a neoliberal register which despite local differences includes both the deepening of economic and social inequalities and the intensification of rights discourses applied to the unborn Inspired by Foucault s theories on biopolitics and biopower and by a long tradition of feminist anthropological studies on reproduction the ethnographically based papers collected in this volume address the following crucial questions How does the notion of irrational reproduction emerge and play out in diverse socio political contexts and what forms of subjectivities and resistance does it generate How does the threat of too few or too many children itself constructed through expert knowledge of statistics and political concerns over the size of different ethnic populations or classes justify and support different biopolitical projects And how do the increasing privatization of healthcare and the dismantling of welfare states affect reproductive practices and decisions on the ground in the global North and South This book was originally published as a special issue of Anthropology and Medicine International Literary Market Place ,1994 Divorcing Traditions Katherine Lemons,2019-03-15 Divorcing Traditions is an ethnography of Islamic legal expertise and practices in India a secular state in which Muslims are a significant minority and where Islamic judgments are not legally binding Katherine

Lemons argues that an analysis of divorce in accordance with Islamic strictures is critical to the understanding of Indian secularism. Lemons analyzes four marital dispute adjudication forums run by Muslim jurists or lay Muslims to show that religious law does not muddle the categories of religion and law but generates them. Drawing on ethnographic and archival research conducted in these four institutions: NGO run women's arbitration centers, mahila panchayats, sharia courts, dar ul qazas, a Muslim jurist's authoritative legal opinions, fatwas, and the practice of what a Muslim legal expert, mufti, calls spiritual healing, Divorcing Traditions shows how secularism is an ongoing project that seeks to establish and maintain an appropriate relationship between religion and politics. A secular state is always secularizing. And yet, as Lemons demonstrates, the state is not the only arbiter of the relationship between religion and law; religious legal forums help to constitute the categories of private and public, religious and secular, upon which secularism relies. In the end, because Muslim legal expertise and practice are central to the Indian legal system and because Muslim divorce's contested legal status marks a crisis of the secular distinction between religion and law, Muslim divorce, argues Lemons, is a key site for understanding Indian secularism.

Indentured Muslims in the Diaspora Maurits S. Hassankhan, Goolam Vahed, Lommarsh Roopnarine, 2016-11-10. The focus of most studies on Indian indenture has been almost exclusively on Hindu religion and culture, even though an estimated seventeen percent of migrants were Muslims. This book thus fills an important gap in the indentured historiography, both to understand that past as well as to make sense of the present when Muslim identities are undergoing rapid changes in response to both local and global realities. The book includes a chapter on the experiences of Muslim indentured immigrants of Indonesian descent who settled in Suriname.
