Conference, 1927 Work and Labour Relations in Global Platform Capitalism Haidar, Julieta, Keune, Maarten, 2021-11-19 This engaging and timely book provides an in depth analysis of work and labour relations within global platform capitalism with a specific focus on digital platforms that organise labour processes known as labour platforms Well respected contributors thoroughly examine both online and offline platforms their distinct differences and the important roles they play for both large transnational companies and those with a smaller global reach Newfoundland National Convention, 1946-1948 James K.

Hiller, Michael Harrington, 1995 The history of the Newfoundland National Convention is of key importance for understanding how Newfoundland became a Canadian province in 1949 In 1946 forty five convention delegates were elected to consider the condition and prospects of Newfoundland and Labrador and make recommendations to the British government concerning the forms of government that should be put before the electorate in a referendum The debates and committee reports were not published after the Convention s dissolution in 1948 they are now brought together in an accessible form for the first time Labor and Industry in Britain , 1954 Proposed Amendments to the National Labor Relations Act:

Committee on Labor, 1939 Labour Relations in the Global Fast-Food Industry Tony Royle, Brian Towers, 2004-08-02 The fast food industry is one of the few industries that can be described as truly global not least in terms of employment which is estimated at around ten million people worldwide This edited volume is the first of its kind providing an analysis of labour relations in this significant industry focusing on multinational corporations and large national companies in ten countries the USA Canada the UK the Netherlands Germany Australia New Zealand Singapore and Russia The extent to which multinational enterprises impose or adapt their employment practices in differing national industrial relations systems is analysed Results reveal that the global fast food industry is typified by trade union exclusion high labour turnover unskilled work paternalistic management regimes and work organization that allows little scope for developing workers participation in decision making let alone advocating widely accepted concepts of social justice and workers rights National Labor Relations Act and Proposed Amendments: Hearing, July 14, 1939 United States.
