Parliament, 1915 The Educational Review, 1966 FCS Engineering Fabrication & Sheet Metalwork L4, 2009 The Swallow's Tale - the Early Years Liam O'Conner, 2017-05-01 This story will take you on a rollercoaster ride of adventure and heartbreak desperation and eventual success but always with a deeper spiritual message as the common thread This poignant and brutally honest memoir is set against a backdrop of laugh until you cry humour and of emotion which touches the very core It is a real against all odds story of the underdog seemingly down and out for the count face in the mud battling for breath But then the devilish Celtic warrior spirit rises from the ashes as you get to glimpse into the eye of a man who has a fury in his heart and a desire to succeed no matter what is thrown at him You get to travel from the streets of Cardiff to the sunny suburbs of Johannesburg in an enthralling story At times it makes you smile with familiarity on other occasions you are holding your sides with laughter The sadder parts of the story are not to be read in public unless you have waterproof mascara or a potential excuse for hayfever The story of Liam OConner is as varied as it is sensitive but underneath it all is still the little red haired boy full of mischief and ambition So if you're ready get a cup of tea and a biscuit and go on a holiday of the mind This is a must read Dürer's Knots Susan Dackerman, 2024-09-10 An important new examination of Islamic themes in the art of Albrecht Dürer Albrecht Dürer's depictions of Muslim figures and subjects are considered by many to be among his most perplexing images This confusion arises from the assumption that the artist and his northern European contemporaries regarded the Muslim Levant as an exotic faraway land inhabited by hostile adversaries not a region of neighboring empires affiliated through political and mercantile networks Susan Dackerman casts Dürer's art in an entirely new light focusing on prints that portray cooperation between the Muslim and Christian worlds rather than conflict and war enabling us to better understand early modern Europe through its visual culture In this beautifully illustrated book Dackerman provides new readings of three of the artist's most enigmatic print projects Sea Monster Knots and Landscape with Cannon situating them within historical contexts that reflect productive collaborations between Christendom and Islam from the artistic and commercial to the ideological and political Dackerman notes how Gutenberg's development of printing shares an inextricable relationship to the 1453 Ottoman siege of Constantinople. While Gutenberg's workshop produced a call to crusade and other publications antagonistic to the Muslim East, Dürer's prints show instead instances of affiliation between Christendom and Islam. A breathtaking work of scholarship, Dürer's Knots shows how the artist's prints of Muslim subjects give expression to the interconnectedness of Christian Europe and the Islamic East.
