

Narrative Essay

A narrative essay tells a story. It uses descriptive language to tell the beginning, middle, and end of an event. It has an introduction that engages the reader's interest, details about the main event or action in the story, and a conclusion that describes the outcome.

Narrative Essay Organization

INTRODUCTION

Hook	The hook gets the reader's attention with an interesting or surprising fact .
Background	The background tells the history or what happened before the action.
Thesis	The thesis sentence prepares the reader for the main action of the story, but it doesn't tell the whole story (just a " hint " about the main action).

BODY PARAGRAPHS

The body paragraphs tell the main story. They use a lot of details to bring the story to life.

Situation	The situation paragraph describes the when, where, what happens in the story, and why the main event is happening, step by step. It often uses time order.
Rising Action	The rising action is the main events leading to the climax . It also uses time order and many details.
Climax	The climax is the main action , the surprise, or the height of the action.

CONCLUSION

The conclusion paragraph tells (1) what happened after the main event, (2) about a lesson the writer learned, and (3) how the writer's life is changed now.
