The Matter of Mind Christopher Braider, 2017-01-23 What influence did Ren Descartes concept of mind body dualism have on early modern conceptions of the self In The Matter of Mind Christopher Braider challenges the presumed centrality of Descartes groundbreaking theory to seventeenth century French culture He details the broad opposition to rational self government among Descartes contemporaries and attributes conventional links between Descartes and the myth of the modern subject to post structuralist assessments The Matter of Mind presents studies drawn from a range of disciplines and examines the paintings of Nicolas Poussin the drama of Pierre Corneille and the theology of Blaise Pascal Braider argues that if early modern thought converged on a single model then it was the experimental picture based on everyday experience proposed by Descartes sceptical adversary Michel de Montaigne Forceful and provocative The Matter of Mind will encourage lively debate on the norms and discourses of seventeenth century philosophy

Translingual Creative Writing Theory, Practice, and Pedagogy Jennifer Quist, 2025-05-15 In a challenge to monolingual Anglophone dominated creative writing workshops this book explores why and how students multilingual backgrounds and lack of fluency with the English language can emerge as assets rather than impediments to artistry and creativity Grounded in the Chinese tradition of Daoism as an ongoing discourse this exploration uses rigorous academic readings of the philosophical text the Zhuangzi as an analytical framework and takes a translingual approach to writing where translation and composition intersect inscribing one language upon another within a single text With concepts that resist expression such as inspiration uncertainty non knowing

China on Screen Christopher J. Berry, Mary Ann Farquhar, 2006-04-04 In China on Screen Chris Berry and Mary Farquhar leaders in the field of Chinese film studies explore more than one hundred years of Chinese cinema and nation Providing new perspectives on key movements themes and filmmakers Berry and Farquhar analyze the films of a variety of directors and actors including Chen Kaige Zhang Yimou Hou Hsiao Hsien Bruce Lee Jackie Chan Maggie Cheung Gong Li Wong Kar wai and Ang Lee They argue for the abandonment of national cinema as an analytic tool and propose cinema and the national as a more productive framework With this approach they show how movies from China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora construct and contest different ideas of Chinese nation as empire republic or ethnicity and complicated by gender class style transnationalism and more Among the issues and themes covered are the tension between operatic and realist modes male and female star images transnational production and circulation of Chinese films the image of the good foreigner all related to different ways of imagining nation Comprehensive and provocative China on Screen is a crucial work of film analysis

Shakespearean Perspectives David Lucking, 2017-03-14 David Lucking sees Shakespeare's plays as negotiating tensions between a number of alternative and sometimes mutually antagonistic perspectives Some of these perspectives are associated with particular languages cultures and texts while others involve philosophical issues such as the nature of personal ontology and distinctions between reality and dream being and nothingness In elaborating his insights Lucking draws extensive comparisons with Lucretius De Rerum Natura and between Sophocles' Theban plays and King Lear and he also pays close attention to A Midsummer Night's Dream Henry V Julius Caesar Hamlet and Antony and Cleopatra Re-assessing a wide range of earlier commentary his nine essays confirm the lasting value of apposite contextualization in tandem with detailed close reading

South Asian Folklore in Transition Frank J. Korom, Leah K. Lowthorp, 2020-05-21 The Indian Subcontinent has been at the centre of folklore inquiry since the 19th century yet while much attention was paid to India by early scholars folkloristic interest in the region waned over time until it virtually disappeared from the research agendas of scholars working in the discipline of folklore and folklife. This fortunately changed in the 1980s when a newly energized group of younger scholars who were interested in a variety of new approaches that went beyond the textual interface returned to folklore as an untapped resource in South Asian Studies. This comprehensive volume further reinvigorates the field by providing fresh studies and new models both for studying the lore and the life of everyday people in the region as well as their engagement with the world at large. By bringing Muslims' material culture, diasporic horizons, global interventions, and politics to bear on South Asian folklore studies, the authors hope to stimulate more dialogue across theoretical and geographical borders to infuse the study of the Indian Subcontinent's cultural traditions with a new sense of relevance that will be of interest not only to areal specialists but also to folklorists and anthropologists in general. This book was originally published as a special issue of South Asian History and Culture. TruthTeller, 1826. Turkey and India in the Shadow of the Great War. Burcu Çevik-Compiègne, 2024-12-30. What do Turkey and India have in common? Burcu Çevik-Compiègne brings sources from two apparently separate contexts into conversation to offer fresh insights into the Great War and its ongoing legacy, highlighting the perspectives of people in two post-imperial nation-states. She uses public discourses, literature, oral histories, memorials, and other material as entry points into histories of writing, overwriting, and erasing the shadows of an imperial war. The connections and parallels between Turkey and India are traced in the narratives of self and the nation from the war to the present and across the globe all the way to contemporary Australia.
