Globalization, Mass Education and Technical and Vocational Education and Training Miriam Preckler

Galguera, 2018-06-05 This book assesses the influence of the international organization UNESCO on the development of national Technical and Vocational Education and Training TVET systems in the Southern African Community Region SADC focusing particularly on Botswana and Namibia Designed around UNESCO's Better Education for Africa's Rise BEAR project the study is an excellent example of applied policy research Analysis is from the perspective of key stakeholders including UNESCO headquarters and field offices Ministries of Education and of Labor employers and employees education and training institutions international partners and more Both qualitative and quantitative evidence are used to provide a comparative overview and the author also reveals the current state of data on skills Readers will discover common goals and challenges across the nations but also a common lack of action to measure the impact and influence that UNESCO's programs have had at a national level prior to this study Were the newly implemented educational policies successful or not If the public policies failed why was that These chapters shed light on such questions and how UNESCO's contribution influenced the national development processes in the context of globalization processes and trends of global mass education The book has much to offer for both scholars and those working in UN agencies or national governments who seek to develop education systems and better link them to the world of work Resources in Education, 1994 Annual Report for the Year Ending ... Namibia. Ministry of Education and Culture, 1994 Issues in African Education A. Abdi, A.

Cleghorn, 2005-11-04 This book addresses major sociological issues in sub-Saharan African education today Its fourteen contributors present a thoroughly African world view within a sociology of education theoretical framework allowing the reader to see where that theory is relevant to the African context and where it is not Several of the chapters bring a much needed cultural nuance and critical theoretical perspective to the issues at hand The sixteen chapters thus aim to be of interest internationally to those who work in such fields as social and political foundations of comparative and international education and development studies including university professors teacher educators researchers school teachers tertiary education students consultants and policy makers Development Directory of Indigenous Publishing, 1995 The Times Index, 1990 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Times educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Handbook of Research on Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game-Based Learning Lane, Carol-Ann, 2022-01-07 Emerging technologies are becoming more prevalent in global classrooms Traditional literacy pedagogies are shifting toward game based pedagogy addressing 21st century learners Therefore within this context there remains a need to study strategies to engage learners in meaning making with some element of virtual design Technology supports the universal design learning framework because it can increase the access to meaningful engagement in learning and reduce barriers The Handbook of Research on

Acquiring 21st Century Literacy Skills Through Game Based Learning provides theoretical frameworks and empirical research findings in digital technology and multimodal ways of acquiring literacy skills in the 21st century This book gains a better understanding of how technology can support learner frameworks and highlights research on discovering new pedagogical boundaries by focusing on ways that the youth learn from digital sources such as video games Covering topics such as elementary literacy learning indigenous games and student worker training this book is an essential resource for educators in K 12 and higher education school administrators academicians pre service teachers game developers researchers and libraries Namibia National Bibliography ,1993 Education and Training Sector Improvement Programme (ETSIP) Namibia,2006 The book provides Education Sector Improvement Programme phase 1 2006 2011
