Sanctity and Environment in Ethiopian Hagiography Abate Gobena, 2023-10-04 The original forests of the central and northern highlands of Ethiopia are almost entirely confined to the sacred groves surrounding the churches and monasteries of the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church In Ethiopian tradition sanctity starts from the Tabot on the altar of the church and extends to the outer periphery of the compound Church forests serve as shade and shelter for the sacred and are seen as integral parts of the churchyard The Act of Gebre Menfes Qiddus GGMQ is an original Ethiopic hagiographic text It depicts the life and struggle of the saint in the wilderness of forests and mountains Hagiographic texts like GGMQ are in Ethiopia not mere historical records but texts linked to the daily liturgical services that shape and mould the perceptions and actions of their readers and listeners The aim of the thesis is to analyse how GGMQ presents the relation between the saint and the natural environment in order to see if there is a correlation with how the Ethiopian tradition has preserved the church forests and has considered these to be sacred spaces representing the wilderness The aim is achieved through a close reading of the text and its intertexts using four selected themes as analytical instruments ascetic estrangement coexistence with non human creation identification with the angels and reconciliation of opposites The analysis and the fact that the GGMQ is one of the most venerated texts read and heard with great liturgical solemnity show that there are good reasons to believe that the constant reading of GGMQ has made and makes a significant impact upon the readers views on the mutual co habitation of human and non human creation and the development of an awareness of the need to preserve the wilderness and non human creation

Transnational Religion And Fading States Susanne H Rudolph, 2018-02-07 Focusing on the dilution of state sovereignty this book examines how the crossing of state boundaries by religious movements leads to the formation of transnational civil society Challenging the assertion that future conflict will be of the clash of civilization variety it looks to the micro origins of conflicts which are as likely to arise between states sharing a religion as between those divided by it and more likely to arise within rather than across state boundaries Thus the chapters reveal the dual potential of religious movements as sources of peace and security as well as of violent conflict Featuring an East West North South approach the volume avoids the conventional and often ethnocentric segregation of the experience of other regions from the European and American Contributors draw examples from a variety of civilizations and world religions They contrast self generated movements from below such as Protestant sectarianism in Latin America or Sufi Islam in Africa with centralized forms of organization and patterns of diffusion from above such as state certified religion in China Together the chapters illustrate how religion as bearer of the politics of meaning has filled the lacuna left by the decline of ideology creating a novel transnational space for world politics

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault's early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault
