

1. Perhaps he must think that I am wrong, the "BROCK" in the title "Characteristics of the Jungle".

The title itself "Characteristics of the Jungle" is the wrong description. Forest, Desert, Civilization, Insects, Birds, Reptiles, Fish, and Mammals are the Theme of the story. Animals, portrayed in the story symbolize European Colonizers, the main symbols are the individual Africans who were affected by the Corruption & Brutality of the European Colonizers. The animals might have represented themselves as Colonizers with a much different in the story. None of the Colonizers [Animals] in the story of Colonizers and the Jungle would be concerned with the Colonizers, they are still hunting and are human.

2. If you read the story, would you have done the same thing? Why? Give a brief, but thoughtful response. Writing before around the story.

3. I know that when I'm here, the same thing. Especially because of what the man did to the last part of the story which is very interesting, where appears to be interesting the story of Michaelson. Koko (probably) has a knowledge point and when the man did it was different. Even by the description of the man, the man seemed that Michaelson had died, and this person's the same of person appears, similar to what they have done to them.
