

The background of the book cover features a complex molecular model. It consists of numerous white spheres, likely representing hydrogen atoms, connected by thin grey rods. These are arranged in a way that suggests a large, branching organic molecule. Overlaid on this are two semi-transparent teal rectangular blocks. The top block contains the authors' names, and the bottom block contains the edition information. The title 'BIOCHEMISTRY' is prominently displayed in the center in a large, bold, blue font, with 'THE MOLECULAR BASIS OF LIFE' in a smaller, similar font directly below it.
