Thomas and Charles Causley Rory Waterman, 2016-04-22 Focusing on the significance of place connection and relationship in three poets who are seldom considered in conjunction Rory Waterman argues that Philip Larkin R S Thomas and Charles Causley epitomize many of the emotional and societal shifts and mores of their age Waterman looks at the foundations underpinning their poetry the attempts of all three to forge a sense of belonging with or separateness from their readers the poets varying responses to their geographical and cultural origins the belonging and estrangement that inheres in relationships including marriage the forced estrangements of war the antagonism between social belonging and a need for isolation and finally the charged issues of faith and mortality in an increasingly secularized country Metaphor and Metonymy across Time and Cultures Javier E. Díaz-Vera, 2014-12-11 This volume offers new insights into figurative language and its pervasive role as a factor of linguistic change The case studies included in this book explore some of the different ways new metaphoric and metonymic expressions emerge and spread among speech communities and how these changes can be related to the need to encode ongoing social and cultural processes in the language They cover a wide series of languages and historical stages Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2024-07-30 Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit is a prequel to the writing and delivery of the sermon The work of invention which includes the gathering of material is the primary focus of the book The hard work of preaching takes place in the thinking reading and writing The cross disciplinary study provided here covers lessons learned by preachers and by novelists poets philosophers and rhetoricians Discovering Poetry Denise Scott, 1993 This introduction to poetry provides over 100 thematically grouped poems in a variety of styles Activities such as discussions games and performances help students understand the meaning form and language of poetry and reinforce the main message of the book that poetry is fun How to be a Brilliant Trainee Teacher Trevor Wright,2007-08-07 This cheerful and accessible book is packed with direct and straightforward advice drawn from the author s extensive and successful personal experience as teacher trainer teacher and examiner It sets out clear and practical guidelines to support your training and enhance your teaching moving you directly towards a real understanding of how and why pupils learn and of how you can enhance your own progress It also offers reassurance and support with the difficulties which you might encounter through your training as a teacher Why won t Year 8 actually do anything Why do we have to read all this theory I know my pace and timing need improvement but what do I actually do about it Why haven t I moved forward at all in the last four weeks It does this by outlining strategies for organization exploring issues of personal development demystifying areas often seen as difficult or complex providing achievable and practical solutions directly addressing anxieties Although a practical book at its heart lie essential principles about good teaching and learning It is anecdotal and readable and may be dipped into for innovative lesson ideas or read from cover to cover as a short enjoyable course which discovers exciting teaching principles in successful practical experience The book is ideal for secondary trainee teachers but the underlying principles about what makes a brilliant trainee teacher are applicable to primary trainees too Negotiating Translation and Transcreation of Children's Literature Joanna

Dybiec-Gajer,Riitta Oittinen,Małgorzata Kodura,2020-05-04 This book offers fresh critical insights to the field of children s literature translation studies by applying the concept of transcreation established in the creative industries of the globalized world to bring to the fore the transformative transgressional and creative aspects of rewriting for children and young audiences This socially situated and culturally dependent practice involves ongoing complex negotiations between creativity and normativity balancing text related problems and genre conventions with readers expectations constraints imposed by established canonical translations and publishers demands Focussing on the translator s strategies and decision making process the book investigates phenomena where transcreation is especially at play in children s literature such as dual address ambiguity nonsense humour play on words and other creative language use these also involve genre specific requirements for example rhyme and rhythm in poetry The book draws on a wide range of mostly Anglophone texts for children and their translations into languages of limited diffusion to demonstrate the numerous ways in which information meaning and emotions are transferred to new linguistic and cultural contexts While focussing mostly on interlingual transfer the volume analyses a variety of translation types from established canonical renditions by celebrity translators to non professional translations and intralingual rewritings It also examines iconotextual dynamics of text and image The book employs a number of innovative methodologies from cognitive linguistics and ethnolinguistics to semiotics and autoethnographic approaches going beyond text analysis to include empirical research on children s reactions to translation strategies Highlighting the complex dynamics at work in the process of transcreating for children this volume is essential reading for students and researchers in translation studies children s fiction and adaptation studies Homer John H. O'Neil,Timothy F. Winters, Historical Cognitive Linguistics Margaret E. Winters,Heli Tissari,Kathryn Allan,2010-12-23 The volume explores the ways in which language change is studied within the framework of Cognitive Linguistics a semantics based theory of language production and perception The eleven chapters explore two kinds of changes firstly those which involve mental prototypes or best instances of particular concepts and extensions of these prototypes and secondly those which relate to conceptual networks for example via metaphor or metonymy More specifically the papers address syntactic and lexical change as well as the evolution of language and changes in the expression usually metaphoric of emotions In presenting a wide range of current work of this kind the volume demonstrates the value of cross fertilization between historical and cognitive linguistics and is intended to open the way for further related research The included papers are of particular relevance to those working in metaphor theory and syntactic semantic change within Cognitive Linguistics but will also be of interest to other historical linguists and those studying cognitive semantics and metaphor from a synchronic viewpoint The Kirk Varnedoe Collection Kadee Robbins,2006 A guide to the unique collection of Telfair s paintings drawings and prints donated by twenty two artists who either were friends with or were admired by the renowned curator and Savannah native Kirk Varnedoe 1946 2003 Each piece is reproduced alongside a remembrance of Varnedoe by the artist Presenting Poetry Thomas Blackburn,University of London. Tse, 2024-12-12 Timothy B Tse argues that while John uses language drawn from the Hebrew Bible s descriptions of YHWH s dwelling place scholarship has overlooked the importance of his spatial transformation of that language Tse thus uses theories relating to Relevance Resistance Theory

Critical Space Theory and Conceptual Metaphor to demonstrate that a significant part of John's apocalyptic strategy of resistance is to re-present his vision to his audience spatially so that they can experience a divinely ordained alternative to the world in which they live. Tse first demonstrates John's attempts to relegate his audience's experience of space to his own revelation. John's description of the visionary world creates the metaphors: the earth is a Sanctuary and the Saints are its priests. Tse argues that under this view, life on earth must be evaluated according to the concerns of the Sanctuary, which by definition requires the removal of everything impure, and the Saints, namely all Christians in both the historic and visionary worlds, must take priestly responsibility for the earth. John therefore portrays the Saints joining in the removal of all impurity upon the earth by fighting as priests in God and the Lamb's war against Satan, Babylon, and all her impurities. Tse concludes that overall, John means to realign the church's experience of space so that they understand themselves as priests of the Sanctuary and live according to that reality.

The Confusions of Pleasure Timothy Brook, 1998. The Ming dynasty was the last great Chinese dynasty before the Manchu conquest in 1644. During that time, China, not Europe, was the centre of the world. The author examines the changing landscape of life over the three centuries of Ming, 1368-1644.

Musical Sincerity and Transcendence in Film Timothy B. Cochran, 2021-08-16. Musical Sincerity and Transcendence in Film focuses on the ways filmmakers treat music reflexively that is, draw attention to what it is and what it can do. Examining a wide range of movies from recent decades, including examples from Indiewood, teen film, and blockbuster cinema, the book explores two recurring ideas about music implied by foregrounded musical activity on screen: that music can be a potent means of sincere expression and genuine human connection, and that music can enable transcendence of disenchantment and the mundane. As an historical musicologist, Timothy Cochran explores these assumptions through analysis of musical style, aesthetic implications, and narrative strategy while treating the ideas as historically grounded and culturally situated with conceptual origins often lying outside of film. The book covers eclectic critical terrain to highlight various layers of musical sincerity and transcendence in film, including the nineteenth-century aesthetics of E. T. A. Hoffmann, David Foster Wallace's literary resistance to irony, sometimes called the New Sincerity, strategies of self-revelation in singer-songwriter repertoires, Lionel Trilling's distinction between sincerity and authenticity, theories of play, David Nye's notion of the American technological sublime, and Svetlana Boym's writings on nostalgia. These lenses reveal that film is a way of perpetuating, revising, and critiquing ideas about music, and that music in film is a potent means of exploring broader social, emotional, and spiritual desires.

Interstices of Space and Memory Sreedevi Santhosh, Samjaila TH, Sneha Suresh, Preethi S., 2025-03-07. The conference intersectionally locates memory and space that reconstruct city chronotopes to explore how identities are reconfigured in metropolitan Indian cities. In taking recourse in locating turning points that could be historical, political, or cultural in the life of Metropolitan Indian Cities, the perspective that is brought together with personal and collective stories that are recorded in Art Literature Curated Projects Museums is that these moments reshape human values, ethos in Cities.

The assumption made is that at specific moments in time turning points with the pandemic for instance the spirit of the city changes It highlights how human beings in cities account for such changes the IIHS runs a postcard project on human lives during the plague and corona being an example It uses focal moments in the City as the lens to discuss Art Literature and City Design
