Midlands State University Application Deadline For August 2015:

Financialising City Statecraft and Infrastructure Andy Pike, Peter O'Brien, Tom Strickland, John Tomaney, 2019
Financialising City Statecraft and Infrastructure addresses the struggles of national and local states to fund finance and govern urban infrastructure. It develops fresh thinking on financialisation and city statecraft to explain the socially and spatially uneven mixing of managerial entrepreneurial and financialised city governance in austerity and limited decentralisation across England. As urban infrastructure fixes for the London global city region risk undermining national rebalancing efforts in the UK, city statecraft in the rest of the country is having uneasily to combine speculation risk taking and prospective venturing with co ordination planning and regulation. Art and Sovereignty in Global Politics Douglas Howland, Elizabeth Lillehoj, Maximilian Mayer, 2016-12-01 This volume aims to question, challenge, supplement and revise current understandings of the relationship between aesthetic and political operations. The authors transcend disciplinary boundaries and nurture a wide ranging sensibility about art and sovereignty, two highly complex and interwoven dimensions of human experience that have rarely been explored by scholars in one conceptual space. Several chapters consider the intertwining of modern philosophical currents and modernist artistic forms, in particular those revealing formal abstraction, stylistic experimentation, self conscious expression and resistance to traditional definitions of Art. Other chapters deal with currents that emerged as facets of art became increasingly commercialized, merging with industrial design and popular entertainment industries. Some contributors address Post Modernist art and theory, highlighting power relations and providing sceptical critical commentary on repercussions of colonialism and notions of universal truths rooted in Western ideals. By interfering with established dichotomies and unsettling stable debates related to art and sovereignty, all contributors frame new perspectives on the co constitution of artworks and practices of sovereignty. Football, Fandom and Collective Memory Przemysław Nosal, Radosław Kossakowski, Wojciech Woźniak, 2024-06-18 This book examines the topic of identity and collective memory in football fandom. Drawing on global research in history, sociology and political science, the book looks at how, where and why football fans and supporters groups introduce particular role models into their self identity and performative narratives. The book presents original, cutting edge research that illustrates the complex, multidimensional nature of the re formulation of collective memory and the elevation of role models. It looks at the processes by which some supporters groups celebrate historical and contemporary figures, including political leaders, warriors, revolutionaries or armed resistance groups that they believe embody patriotic, regional or nationalist virtues, as well as supporters groups who define their patriotism in opposition to these figures. The book presents cases ranging from Ukrainian football ultras in the shadow of Russian aggression and Jewish role models in Germany's collective football memory to the symbology of Che Guevara and Diego Maradona in Brazilian and Argentinian football to hero formation and the myths of national identity in Australian football. This is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology, culture or politics of sport or in fandom.
