Namibian Books in Print, 2004 The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale, 2014-10-21 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process From History to Herstory Paul Leshota, Maxwell Musingafi, Itumeleng Mokhele, Makhulu Makumane, 2024-11-15 This book seeks to contribute to reflections done on the gender equality agenda by combing through oral and written resources to unearth and document heroic displays of leadership by women of Africa in general and of Southern Africa in particular that remain hidden under the rubble of Eurocentric colonial and African patriarchal archive and hegemony It seeks to open the archive of Southern Africa to unearth the names of women who have played an important role in shaping the course of Southern Africa history in every way While acknowledging the systematic marginalisation of women s voices and identities by scribal patriarchy the aim is to bring to life women s experiences and voices through critical engagement of sources of knowledge available to Africa in general and southern Africa in particular The chapters of this book will contribute to the debate on gender equality and women empowerment by women themselves within the framework of Sustainable Development Goals especially SDG 5 Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind s vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history Seminar in North America on the Efforts by the International Community to End South Africa's Illegal Occupation of Namibia, Montreal, Canada, 23-27 July 1984, 1985 Parks and People in Postcolonial Societies M. Ramutsindela, 2006-01-14 Against the background of colonial and postcolonial experiences this volume shows that power relations and stereotypes embedded in the original Western idea of a national park are a continuing reality of contemporary national and transnational parks The volume seeks to dispel the myth that colonial beliefs and practices in protected areas have ended with the introduction of new nature conservation policies and practices It explores this continuity against the backdrop of the development of the national park idea in the West and its trajectories in colonial and postcolonial societies particularly southern Africa This volume analyses the dynamic relations between people and national parks and assesses these in southern Africa against broader experiences in postcolonial societies It draws examples from a broad range of situations and places It reinserts issues of prejudices into contemporary national park systems and accounts for continuities and interruptions in national parks ideals in different contexts Its interpretation of material transcends the North South divide This volume is accessible to readers from different academic backgrounds It is of special interest to academics policymakers and Non Governmental Organisations This book can also be used as prescribed or reference material in courses taught at university

Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08

Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar's cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa

The Rise of Constitutionalism Kostas Chrysogonos, 2025-10-16

This book explores the historical comparative and global dimensions of the constitutional phenomenon From the origins of constitutionalism to the diverse trajectories of North American and European constitutionalism the book considers pivotal moments in the emergence and evolution of formal Constitutions as the main structure of constitutional governance It presents a critical inquiry into the realities that lie beneath the surface of formal constitutional documents From the struggles for democratic governance in Latin America to Asia's delicate balance between tradition and modernity and Africa's post colonial arrangements the book poses a critical query amidst the promises of democratic ideals do formal Constitutions always translate into effective governance What are the lessons of facade Constitutions on the tension between formal documents and the realities of governance The book explores the past and present of constitutional governance in the first quarter of the 21st century and offers insights on the future of constitutionalism By assessing the normative quality of Constitutions and exploring the intrinsic link between them and representation it offers an understanding of the essence and trajectories of constitutional thought and practice The Rise of Constitutionalism is a must read for anyone fascinated by the enduring legacy and evolving nature of the constitutional phenomenon Handbook of Land and Water Grabs in Africa

John Anthony Allan, 2013 Four other themes will be addressed: politics, economics, the environment and the history of land investments in sub-Saharan Africa
