drawing conclusions

A conclusion is the end or finish of a certain process. It can also be a judgement or decision reached by reasoning. All narrative stories end with a conclusion. A conclusion is a main part of the plot diagram and the end of a story.

Directions: Identify and underline the conclusion in each sentence or group of sentences.

Example: I forgot to bring my lunch to school, therefore I didn't eat.

Answer: I forgot to bring my lunch to school, therefore I didn't eat.

1. I did not bring my wallet to the store, so I could not buy anything.
2. I prepared well and studied hard for my upcoming test, so I passed it.
3. I bought a new computer, therefore I could play online games.
4. I did not have cable t.v., thus I didn't watch the Laker game.
5. My family took a vacation every summer, therefore I learned a lot.
6. I went with my friends on a road trip, so I had lots of fun.
7. I couldn't finish my food, so I had to put some of it back.
8. We had fun at the water park, thus we were sleepy afterward.
9. I did well in high school, so I went to a good college.

Improve Overall Reading Comprehension with Targeted Specific Skill Practice. Focusing on one comprehension skill at a time gives students the opportunity to master that skill and improve their general reading and comprehension skills. Drawing Conclusions. Being able to draw a conclusion is a higher level comprehension skill. It can be confusing. A conclusion is not something that is directly stated in a story. Students must conclude something based on reading the details of a story. Introduce students to the concept of drawing a conclusion by explaining that this means making a decision about something you have read based on information in the story

Conclusions can fill in the meaning of a story

Skill Specific Activities There are 15 high interest short stories in this selection that include a variety of fiction and non fiction topics

The follow up questions guide students to draw a conclusion based on specific details in the story

Each story is numbered instead of having a title

The last question for each story asks the students to give the story a title

This important activity helps to determine the student s level of understanding the story s main idea

Visual Lesson Each story has an engaging illustration designed to bring the story to life and help capture the interest of reluctant readers

To help sharpen inference skills students can be asked to use the illustration to predict what the story is about

Teaching Opportunities These targeted activities are great for one on one intervention small groups of students at multiple skill levels or whole class participation

Activities can be used for remediation review and transition classes

Details Each short story is between 140 and 160 words and is written at a 2 0 to 3 5 reading level according to the Flesch Kincaid Readability Scale

The interest level is grades 4 and up
