 Heddendorf finds in sociological theories some hidden threads Christian principles woven into the fabric of society Early Christian thought was radical in its approach to social life Jesus provided a different concept of the person and encouraged his followers to act upon this new understanding Thus in the early centuries after Christ Christian social thought was a dynamic positive social force but today the situation differs Many Christians readily accept current interpretations of problems as valid Consequently in response to these modern explanations Christians develop a form of secularized thought
