

EXPLANATION TEXT STRUCTURE

An explanation text tells the audience how something works or why something happens. An explanation text often describes the stages of a process.

A Title

The title of an explanation text should tell the reader exactly what the text will be about. The title often includes the words how, or why.

Introduction

The introduction should include the following:

- The purpose of the text.
- A short description of the topic.
- An explanation of some of the technical words.

Main Body

The main body includes a set of logical steps to explain how or why something happens. The main body can include any, or all, of the following:

- An ordered set of events to explain the topic.
- Paragraphs to separate each part of the process.
- Subheadings to describe each paragraph.

Each paragraph should link to the next with an arrow (for a diagram) or a linking sentence.

Conclusion

The conclusion should sum up the key information from the text. It should provide an answer to the question in the title.
