university both as one of the great institutions of modern society and as a transformational experience for the individual The book also makes illuminating comparisons with higher education in other countries especially the US and Germany Drawing on his experience as UK Minister for Universities and Science from 2010 to 2014 the author offers a powerful account of the value of higher education and the case for more expansion He covers controversial issues in which he was involved from access for disadvantaged students to the introduction of 9 000 fees The final section addresses some of the big questions for the future such as the the relationship between universities and business especially in promoting innovation He argues that the two great contemporary trends of globalisation and technological innovation will both change the university significantly This is an authoritative account of English universities setting them for the first time in their new legal and regulatory framework Post-Soviet Geography ,1996 Education for Sustainable Development Brian Chalkley,Martin Haigh,David Higgitt,2013-09-13 In 2005 The United Nations launched its Decade of Education for Sustainable Development which recognises that education including Higher Education is the key to the change in social attitudes that will be needed to protect the welfare of future generations This involves helping learners to live as though the future matters and to achieve ecoliteracy This includes the understanding that personal lifestyle decisions may have consequences ranging from climate change through loss of biodiversity to pollution and resource depletion that may permit environmental degradation on a planetary scale It also involves helping them to develop the skills needed to cope with such challenges This international collection of research papers and position statements from special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication written by many of the leading practitioners in the field aims to provide resources and practical guidance for all seeking to promote and engage in education for a sustainable future Rabindranath Tagore encouraged each learner to make their actions demonstrate a harmonious union between education and environment David Orr argued that the world needs people who live well in their places to make the world both habitable and humane and that the main challenge for education is to help learners make their minds fit for life on Earth This book tries to chart a practical route towards these objectives This book was previously published as special issues of the Journal of Geography in Higher Education and Applied Environmental Education and Communication Post-Soviet Geography and Economics ,1996 Crowdsourcing, Constructing and Collaborating Siddharth Peter deSouza,Nida Rehman,Saba Sharma,2021-12-30 Citizens around the world use crowdsourced platforms to hold governments accountable to fill gaps in infrastructural and municipal services and to call attention to issues that impact everyday lives such as sexual violence and environmental injustice Crowdsourcing Constructing and Collaborating brings together individuals and groups engaged in building and sustaining platforms for online collaboration and participation to explore and reflect on the methods challenges and potentials of the technology of crowdsourcing and mapping of social impact It brings together people directly involved in a range of projects from around the world I Paid A Bribe Environmental Justice Atlas HarassMap Intolerance Tracker

Visualizing Palestine and Humanitarian Tracker to critically reflect on the tactics methods challenges and opportunities of crowdsourcing and crowd mapping as tools for social environmental and political change In an accessible and visually engaging style it shows how participatory digital media become crucial components of journalistic scholarly and activist practices addressing a range of topical challenges including economic corruption sexual harassment political violence and environmental conflict in diverse geographic contexts

Narrowing the Achievement Gap for Native American Students Peggy McCardle, Virginia Berninger, 2014-08-21 There has been much talk and effort focused on the educational achievement gap between white versus black Hispanic and American Indian students While there has been some movement the gap has not appreciably narrowed and it has narrowed the least for Native American students This volume addresses this disparity by melding evidence based instruction with culturally sensitive materials and approaches outlining how we as educators and scientists can pay the educational debt we owe our children In the tradition of the Native American authors who also contribute to it this volume will be a series of stories that will reveal how the authors have built upon research evidence and linked it with their knowledge of history and culture to develop curricula materials and methods for instruction of not only Native American students but of all students It provides a framework for educators to promote cultural awareness and honor the cultures and traditions that too few people know about After each major section of the volume the editors will provide commentary that will give an overview of these chapters and how they model approaches and activities that can be applied to other minority populations including Blacks Hispanics and minority and indigenous groups in nations around the globe
