Julien Mercille, Enda Murphy, 2015-07-07 From bank bailouts to austerity Europe's and Ireland's response to the economic crisis has been engineered specifically to shift the burden of paying for the crisis onto ordinary citizens while investors financiers bankers and the privileged are protected The authors expose the class based nature of Ireland's crisis resolution

Rockhound: A Geography of Collecting Michael Gordon, 2017-05-15 In this book Rockhound A Geography of Collecting you will be shown Ontario's incredible history of mineral extraction and as you will see rockhounds follow in the signature that every industry left The full Rockhound series tells you how and where to find crystals minerals gold diamonds and all manner of rock and mineral treasure for the collector this book is an absolute gem and an essential guide to Ontario geology as it relates to mineral collecting Asymmetric Crisis in Europe and Possible Futures Johannes Jäger, Elisabeth Springler, 2015-04-10 The crisis in Europe is often discussed as a crisis of European integration or a crisis of national economies within Europe Both the methodological Europeanism and methodological nationalism miss out the important links between economic and political processes at different spatial scales within Europe and therefore asymmetries and phenomena of uneven development In addition a discussion of possible scenarios which systematically addresses the implications of anti crisis policies is missing This volume seeks to close this gap by systematically integrating the analysis of economic policy or technical solutions to the crisis within a broader framework of political economy It argues that combining critical political economy approaches and post Keynesian perspectives allows for a systematic understanding of the economic and political dimensions of the crisis Although both approaches have the capacity to deal with asymmetries and uneven development the heterogeneity in Europe has been an often largely neglected dimension of analysis However this recent crisis has shown that this is an essential dimension which has to be addressed in order to better understand the dynamics of European development and integration Hence this book aims to deal with asymmetries in Europe and to bridge the gap between the two perspectives This work will initiate an integrative debate that is crucial for a deeper understanding of the current crisis and is an important resource for all students and scholars of IPE European political economy and European politics      Exclusion and Inclusion in International Migration: Power, Resistance and Identity Armağan Teke

Lloyd, 2019-04-30 People on the move face new barriers in a globalizing world Some of these barriers are related with the rise of an increasingly security oriented approach towards international migrants Notwithstanding the forces of globalization states have maintained their monopoly power over whom to admit and whom to deny within their borders In other words they remain the sovereign authority regulating the entry and exit of people However in recent years a number of states have singled out international immigration as the greatest political and social threat to their cultural and national security The securitization of immigration is founded upon the premise that the international movement of people represents an exceptional risk for the survival of the nation and this is often associated with terrorism instability and criminality The securitization of immigration is also based on the idea that the traditional authority vested in states to regulate immigration is somehow insufficient and needs to be enhanced These assumptions correspond with a real policy shift in some countries such as the United States where the government is planning to spend approximately 23 Billion Dollars on border security and immigration enforcement in 2019 alone This edited volume is an exploration of the global landscapes inhabited by refugees and labour migrants although the focus is largely on the former Despite the fact that most of the empirical studies are drawn from within Europe the book also includes research on Nepal Australia the Middle East and Japan in order to reveal the truly global dimensions of migration and the regimes governing this Content INTRODUCTION by Arma an Teke Lloyd PART A Ideology and Governance of Migration CHAPTER 1 Coming to Terms with Liberal Democracy by the Populist Radical Right Parties of Western Europe Evidence from European Parliament Speeches over Minorities and Migration by Caner Tekin CHAPTER 2 A Forest with many trees Mapping migration governance and the dispersion of authority in Europe by Lisa Marie Borrelli Rebecca Mavin and Giorgia Trasciani CHAPTER 3 Policing Migrants in Transit and Upon Arrival The Bordering Tactic of Integration in Austria and Germany by Olivia Johnson PART B Regulations Suspension of Human Rights CHAPTER 4 Borders Exception and Sovereignty Australia s Migration Policies as Instruments of Suspension of Human Rights and International Obligations by Ana Carolina Macedo Abreu CHAPTER 5 Power and Sandwiched Sovereignty Nepali Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries by Hari KC CHAPTER 6 The Body and Embodied Experiences in the British Asylum System Developing a Conceptual Perspective by Rebecca Mavin CHAPTER 7 Eritrean Unaccompanied Refugee Minors in The Netherlands Wellbeing and Health by Anna de Haan Yodit Jacob Trudy Mooren and Winta Ghebream PART C Migrants Strategies and Identities CHAPTER 8 Social Inclusion Processes for unaccompanied minors in the city of Palermo Fostering Autonomy through a New Social Inclusion Model by Roberta Lo Bianco and Georgia Chondrou CHAPTER 9 Urban Resistances and Migrant Activism Challenging the Border Regime in Madrid City by Ana Santamarina and Almudena Cabezas

The Drone Debate Avery Plaw, Matthew S. Fricker, Carlos Colon, 2015-12-24 The Drone Debate offers a thorough investigation of the where why how and when of the U S s use of UAVs Beginning with a historical overview of the use of drones in warfare it then addresses whether targeted killing operations are strategically wise whether they are permissible under international law and the related ethical issues It also looks at the political factors behind the use of drones including domestic and global attitudes toward their use and potential issues of proliferation and escalation Finally the use of drones by other countries such as Israel and China is examined Each chapter features a case study that highlights particular incidents and patterns of operation in specific regions including Yemen Somalia Pakistan and Libya and strike types signature strikes personality strikes etc

Assembling Bus Rapid Transit in the Global South Malve Jacobsen, 2020-12-13 This book explores the mobile ethnography of Dar es Salaam where consultants and politicians have planned and implemented a bus rapid transit BRT system for two decades It analyses the dual processes of assembling BRT in the Tanzanian metropolis and establishing BRT as a policy model of and for the Global South The book elucidates how policy models are constructed and circulated around the globe and depicts the processes by which they are translated between and materialise within specific contexts It presents the case of BRT to demonstrate how technocrats shape these processes through persuasive work aimed at disseminating and stabilising this transport model and how local actors influence its adaptation in Dar es Salaam The book adopts a double mobility approach to show how this ethnography follows travelling consultants circulating policies and moving buses to explore the fluidity of the BRT model Linking key debates in policy mobility studies and Science and Technology Studies enriched with postcolonial perspectives and geographies of transport and infrastructure it offers new insights into the technopolitics of planning and implementing infrastructure systems This book will appeal to academics and students of human geography transport studies science and technology studies and African and development studies interested in the technopolitics of transport planning

Defenders of Japan Garren Mulloy, 2021-12-01 Japan's post war armed forces are a paradox both embarrassing remnants of the past and valuable repositories of experience This book charts the development of the Japan Self Defense Forces JSDF from 1954 as both unorthodox military institutions and servants of a civil society that decries militarism Investigating JSDF contributions to Japanese and global security the evolution of such contributions during and after the Cold War and their possible reconfiguration for Japan's security needs ahead Garren Mulloy offers insight into the Forces past present and future He explores the characteristics and contradictions of Japanese policy including novel approaches in response to an increasingly assertive China the latent threat of North Korea and contributory pressure from the US Though the American alliance remains the core of Japanese security new partnerships and international overtures will also shape the Forces place in Prime Minister Abe's new vision of proactive contributions to peace Defenders of Japan deconstructs how the JSDF have adapted and will continue to adapt within domestic norms caught between unresolved legacies of Japan's imperial past and a dynamically shifting balance of future global power

The Middle and Upper Paleolithic Archeology of the Levant and Beyond Yoshihiro Nishiaki, Takeru Akazawa, 2017-12-06 This volume is a compilation of results from sessions of the Second International Conference on the Replacement of Neanderthals by Modern Humans which took place between November 30 and December 6 2014 in Hokkaido Japan Similar to the first conference held in 2012 in Tokyo the 2014 conference RNMH2014 aimed to compile the results of the latest multidisciplinary approaches investigating the issues surrounding the replacement of Neanderthals by modern humans The results of the sessions supplemented by off site contributions center on the archeology of the Middle and Upper Paleolithic of the Levant and beyond The first part of this volume presents recent findings from the Levant while the second part focuses on the neighboring regions namely the Caucasus the Zagros and South Asia The 13 chapters in this volume highlight the distinct nature of the cultural occurrences during the Middle and Upper Paleolithic periods of the Levant displaying a continuous development as well as a combination of lithic traditions that may have originated in different regions This syncretism which is an unusual occurrence in the regions discussed in this volume reinforces the importance of the Levant as a region for interpreting the RNMH phenomenon in West Asia

The Urban Political Theresa Enright, Ugo Rossi, 2017-11-01 This book examines the political and economic trajectories of cities following the 2008 financial crisis The authors claim that in this era which they dub late neoliberalism urban spaces institutions subjectivities and organizational forms are undergoing processes of radical transformation and recomposition The volume deftly argues that the urban political horizon of late neoliberalism is ambivalent marked by many progressive mobilizations for equality and justice but also by regressive forces of austerity exploitation and domination      World Scientific Reference On Asia-Pacific Trade Policies (In 2 Volumes) Kym Anderson, 2019-12-19 Protectionism has been placed under the media spotlight with news headlines generated by populist anti globalization movements and Donald Trump's term as US President Such a policy stance is putting at risk unilateral trade reform efforts in the Asia Pacific region and elsewhere This two volume reference work provides a timely update on how far the region has come in opening markets It analyzes the motivations or ostensible objectives of policies adopted in the past the changing extent of the domestic price distortions involved the economic effects of those policies at home and abroad the political economy forces at work that brought about those policies and their subsequent reform their consequences for international trade economic welfare and poverty alleviation and prospects for sustainable improvements in current policies Case studies of major East Asian economies and Australia reveal how government priorities to assist farmers versus manufacturers changed over the past century but especially since the 1980s and how that has affected trade between natural resource poor and resource rich economies This set is highly recommended for those who are interested in the economics and politics of trade policies agricultural economics economic development and food and nutrition security in the Asia Pacific region and beyond      Healthy, Resilient, and Sustainable Communities After Disasters Institute of Medicine, Board on Health Sciences Policy, Committee on Post-Disaster Recovery of a Community's Public Health, Medical, and Social Services, 2015-09-10 In the devastation that follows a major disaster there is a need for multiple sectors to unite and devote new resources to support the rebuilding of infrastructure the provision of health and social services the restoration of care delivery systems and other critical recovery needs In some cases billions of dollars from public private and charitable sources are invested to help communities recover National rhetoric often characterizes these efforts as a return to normal But for many American communities pre disaster conditions are far from optimal Large segments of the U S population suffer from preventable health problems experience inequitable access to services and rely on overburdened health systems A return to pre event conditions in such cases may be short sighted given the high costs both economic and social of poor health Instead it is important to understand that the disaster recovery process offers a series of unique and valuable opportunities to improve on the status quo Capitalizing on these opportunities can advance the long term health resilience and sustainability of communities thereby better preparing them for future challenges Healthy Resilient and Sustainable Communities After Disasters identifies and recommends recovery practices and novel programs most likely to impact overall community public health and contribute to resiliency for future incidents This book makes the case that disaster recovery should be guided by a healthy community vision where health considerations are integrated into all aspects of recovery planning before and after a disaster and funding streams are leveraged in a coordinated manner and applied to health improvement priorities in order to meet human recovery needs and create healthy built and natural environments The conceptual framework presented in Healthy Resilient and Sustainable Communities After Disasters lays the groundwork to achieve this goal and provides operational guidance for multiple sectors involved in community planning and disaster recovery Healthy Resilient and Sustainable Communities After Disasters calls for actions at multiple levels to facilitate recovery strategies that optimize community health With a shared healthy community vision strategic planning that prioritizes health and coordinated implementation disaster recovery can result in a communities that are healthier more livable places for current and future generations to grow and thrive communities that are better prepared for future adversities Free Market Environmentalism for the Next Generation T. Anderson,D.

Leal,2015-02-04 This book provides a vision for environmentalism s future based on the success of environmental entrepreneurs around the world The work provides the next generation of environmental market ideas and the chapters are co authored with young scholars and policy analysts who represent the next generation of environmental leaders

Congressional Record United States. Congress,2017-10-24 Lessons From The Arctic Emily Tsui,Thomas S Axworthy,Sara French,2020-08-06 Lessons from the Arctic The Role of Regional Government in International Affairs is a collection of articles written by twenty six leading and emerging scholars from across the circumpolar region Each author assesses and explores the processes of regional governance in the Arctic from an interdisciplinary perspective The topics include Indigenous internationalism paradiplomacy federalism global institution building and more Human Rights and the Dark Side of Globalisation Thomas Gammeltoft-Hansen,Jens Vedsted-Hansen,2016-12-08 This book examines the continued viability of international human rights law in the context of extraterritorialisation outsourcing and privatisation of law enforcement tasks New forms of state cooperation raise difficult questions about divided shared and joint responsibility under international human rights law This book brings together some of the most authoritative legal voices to provide an introduction to core issues such as state responsibility attribution and extraterritorial jurisdiction as well as up to date case studies of different transnational law enforcement issues It will interest students scholars and practitioners of IR human rights and public international law The Life of Permafrost Pey-Yi Chu,2020-12-07 In the Anthropocene the thawing of frozen earth due to global warming has drawn worldwide attention to permafrost Contemporary scientists define permafrost as ground that maintains a negative temperature for at least two years But where did this particular conception of permafrost originate and what alternatives existed The Life of Permafrost provides an intellectual history of permafrost placing the phenomenon squarely in the political social and material context of Russian and Soviet science Pey Yi Chu shows that understandings of frozen earth were shaped by two key experiences in the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union On one hand the colonization and industrialization of Siberia nourished an engineering perspective on frozen earth that viewed the phenomenon as an aggregate physical structure ground On the other a Russian and Soviet tradition of systems thinking encouraged approaching frozen earth as a process condition and space tied to planetary exchanges of energy and matter Aided by the US militarization of the Arctic during the Cold War the engineering view of frozen earth as an obstacle to construction became dominant The Life of Permafrost tells the fascinating story of how permafrost came to acquire life as Russian and Soviet scientists studied named and defined it Politics and Pan-Africanism Dawn Nagar,2019-12-12 Offering an examination of the diplomatic and economic regional power structures in Africa and their relationships with each other Dawn Nagar discusses the potential and future of pan Africanism The three primary regional economic communities RECs that are recognised by the African Union as the key building blocks of a united Africa are examined these are the Common Market for Eastern and Southern Africa COMESA the East African Community EAC and the Southern African Development Community SADC These RECS include Africa s major economies Egypt South Africa and Kenya but are also home to Africa s most conflict prone and volatile states the Democratic Republic of the Congo DRC Burundi South Sudan Somalia and Lesotho Providing a detailed overview of the current relationship between these power blocs this book provides insight into the current state of diplomatic and economic relations within Africa and shows how far there is to go for a future of Pan Africanism Globalization and Urbanization James H. Spencer,2014-06-26 During the past decade the world reached the point of becoming more urban than not as the majority of people on the planet now live not in small towns or villages but in provincial national and global cities Scholars have long been fascinated by so called global cities world cities and the urban engines of the global economy James H Spencer argues however that such an emphasis misses the central fact that urbanization goes well beyond the usual suspects of New York Tokyo London and Shanghai The author charts urbanization across the Global South and North resulting in what he describes as a planetary global urban ecosystem This concept that challenges us to realize that in daily life their similar physical and social ecosystems that make cities more understandable to each other than to their own rural hinterlands Spencer s vivid case studies of Addis Ababa Ho Chi Minh City Honolulu and New York draw out the commonalities of our intertwined built and social environments and how they express a shared humanity across continents and cultures
