Grade September Examination Economics Question Paper

Sampson Low

Grade September Examination Economics Question Paper:

From GCSEs to EBCs Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Education Committee, 2013 The Government's plans for replacing GCSEs with new English Baccalaureate Certificates in some subjects is trying to do too much too fast. Introducing several fundamental changes at the same time and to a tight timetable will jeopardise the quality of the reforms and may threaten the stability of the wider exam system. GCSEs need significant improvements in order to restore public confidence in the exam system but the Government still needs to make the case that the GCSE brand is so discredited that it is beyond repair. MPs are also concerned about the impact of the changes on subjects outside the English Baccalaureate where students will be taking GCSEs for some time to come according to the Government's plans. The report also questions how well the Government's proposals will serve lower attaining pupils who are often the most disadvantaged. There is no evidence that the proposed changes will help to tackle under achievement or narrow the attainment gap between the richest and poorest students any more effectively than GCSEs. The Government is also called upon to re think its plans for a Statement of Achievement specifically for lower attaining pupils. MPs agree that changes are needed to the way in which exams are run but they raise serious concerns about franchising subjects to exam boards. The report is critical of the Government's decision to abolish some GCSEs before publishing the outcomes of the National Curriculum Review and its proposed changes to the school accountability system. MPs also note the wide ranging stakeholder opposition to many of the Government's proposals.

While there have been numerous accounts of the war they have largely been written by governmental participants, military leaders or academic historians but this autobiography explains what the war did to everyday men and women. As a private in the Biafran Army and later an orderly to the second in command in the Biafran Army a glorified military name for a servant the author was involved in the war directly and indirectly. As a fresh child recruit with no battle experience Okereke had no way of knowing the danger he would face. He did not realize how much he needed to prepare for battle emotionally, psychologically and physically or how the war would continue to affect him long after it ended. Devastated with the outcome of the war the author had to cope with the dashed hope of a free Biafra as well as the desertion of his hero the Peoples General Odumegwu Ojukwu. Find out how he picked up the pieces of a broken life in The General's Orderly.
