

Autobiography

What is an Autobiography?

An autobiography is a text that is written to inform the reader about a real person's life. The author of the text is the person featured in the autobiography.

Characteristics of Autobiography

- The author is the person featured in the autobiography.
- Written in first person (uses I, me, my).
- Shares important events and details from the person's life.
- All the events are true.

Why do authors write autobiographies?

Authors write autobiographies to inform the read about their actual life. They want to share the important events that shaped who they are.

The Secret Life of Kids James W. Peterson, 2000-10-29 It all began when James Peterson was a camp counselor and two children watching him meditate described the colors they saw around his form we saw colors coming out of his stomach And the outside was purple then it was blue then it was yellow then reddish and light yellow in the middle Studies indicate that almost seven percent of young children have such psychic experiences For the most part they don't tell anybody about them for fear of being ridiculed But the author believes it would be psychologically healthy for them to relate such occurrences to adults if they feel the need In this book Peterson has put together a charming collection of case histories about such psychic episodes He believes they should be accepted as factual that frequently they emanate from the wisdom of innocence present in youngsters The question of the secret life of kids is examined by Peterson from the point of view of philosophy occultism and child psychology He suggests why and how such experiences manifest and their potential value to the child's growth pattern
