Civil Society and Peacebuilding in Sub-Saharan Africa in the Anthropocene Jean Chrysostome K. Kiyala, Geoff Thomas Harris, 2022-04-22 This book examines civil society's peacebuilding role in sub-Saharan Africa in the context of climate change and the pursuit of environmental peace and justice in the Anthropocene. Five main research themes emerge from its 20 chapters: The roles of environmental peacemaking, environmental justice, ecological education and eco-ethics in helping to mitigate the impacts of climate change; Peacebuilding by CSOs after violent conflicts with particular reference to accountability, reconciliation and healing; CSO involvement in democratic processes and political transition after violent conflicts; Relationships between local CSOs and their foreign funders and the interactions between CSOs and the African Union's peace and security architecture; The particular role of faith-based CSOs. The book underlines the centrality of dialogue to African peacebuilding and the indigenous wisdom and philosophies on which it is based. Such wisdom will be a key resource in confronting the existential challenges of the Anthropocene. The book will be a significant resource for researchers, academics and policymakers concerned with the challenge of climate change, its interactions with armed conflict and the peacebuilding role of CSOs. This pathbreaking book shows why peacebuilding analysis and efforts need to be urgently re-oriented towards the existential challenges of environmental peace and justice. It explains the emerging conceptual frameworks which are needed for this new role. It explains the critical role that CSOs, local and international, will play in implementing this new peacebuilding approach with particular reference to sub-Saharan Africa. Post-Conflict Participatory Arts Faith Mkwanzani, F. Melis Cin, 2021-12-15 This book investigates the power of art to enhance human development and to initiate positive social change for individuals and societies recovering from conflict. Interventions aimed at reinforcing social justice and bringing communities together after conflict are often accused of being top-down or failing to consider all groups and contexts within a society. The use of participatory arts can help to address these challenges by fostering community engagement, social cohesion, influencing public policy and ultimately advancing social justice. Arts-based methods can be particularly effective at reaching youth communities, providing voice and political agency to young people who are often not given a platform. Situated at the intersection of participatory arts, social and epistemic justice, this book brings together case studies from across the world to reflect on best practice for the use of bottom-up participatory co-produced and co-designed arts processes in conflict settings. This book provides an important guide to the role that arts can play in addressing epistemic injustice and contributing to social justice and human development. As such, it will be of interest to international development and arts practitioners, policy makers and to students and researchers across participatory arts, youth studies, international development, social justice and peace and conflict studies. The impact of the Maputo Protocol in selected African states Susan Mutambasere, Ashwanee Budoo-Scholtz, Davina Murden, 2023-01-01 This book assesses the impact and effectiveness of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of fuller understanding of conflict and displacement and its effects upon adolescents It will also be welcomed by practitioners concerned to develop more effective ways of providing support to this group     Peace, Politics, and Religion Jeffrey Haynes, 2020-12-14 Relationships between peace politics and religion are often controversial and sometimes problematic Religion is a core source of identity for billions of people around the world and it is hardly surprising that sometimes it becomes involved in conflicts At the same time we can see religion involved not only in conflict It is also central to conflict resolution peace making and peacebuilding Religious involvement is often necessary to try to end hatred and differences frequently central to political conflicts especially but not only in the Global South Evidence shows that religious leaders and faith based organisations can play constructive roles in helping to end violence and in some cases build peace via early warnings of conflict good offices once conflict has erupted as well as advocacy mediation and reconciliation The chapters of this book highlight that religion can encourage both conflict and peace through the activities of people individually and collectively imbued with religious ideas and ideals     Public Administration and the Modern State J. Lehrke, 2014-10-28 The challenges faced by the public sector are many and varied Civil services at the forefront of tackling pressing problems in a whole range of areas from climate change to income inequality are being allocated less money to do so This collection explores how public sectors have adapted to address the demands placed on them in the 21st Century     Research in Education ,1974     The Herald of peace ,1884     Rural Development Abstracts ,2012     The Herald of Peace on International Arbitration The Peace Society ,1885     Zimbabwe in Transition Timothy Murithi, Aquilina Mawadza, 2011 Zimbabwe s Transition to Democracy in the post independence era has been a very difficult one To date there have been a number of sustained efforts by various local regional and international actors to move Zimbabwe towards democracy as well as attempts to find a lasting solution to the political and economic crises that seriously affected the country s progress from the late 1990s However these attempts have been less successful mainly because Zimbabwe has complex political and economic problems with interlocking national regional and international political and economic dimensions rooted in both historical and contemporary factors and developments To understand the complexities of the challenges to Zimbabwe s transition to democracy as well as prospects for political change and democracy in the country Zimbabwe in Transition critically examines both the historical and contemporary dynamics shaping political and economic developments in the country taking into account voices from a broad spectrum of Zimbabwean society including civil society faith based communities the diaspora women community leaders the media youth and regional actors such as SADC and the AU Book jacket     The Army and Politics in Zimbabwe Blessing-Miles Tendi, 2020-01-16 An essential biographical record of General Solomon Mujuru one of the most controversial figures within the history of African liberation politics     Experience and Identity John Money, 1977     The Australasian Review of African Studies ,2006     Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham, Douglas Pratt, David Richard Thomas, David Thomas, 2013-11 Understanding Interreligious

White, 2000-03-28 This book examines the processes by which effective royal government was restored in England following the civil war of Stephen s reign It questions the traditional view that Stephen presided over anarchy arguing instead that the king and his rivals sought to maintain the administrative traditions of Henry I leaving foundations for a restoration of order once the war was over The period from 1153 to 1162 spanning the last months of Stephen s reign and the early years of Henry II s is seen as one primarily of restoration when concerted efforts were made to recover royal lands rights and revenues lost since 1135 Thereafter restoration gave way to reform although the administrative advances of 1166 have been seen as a watershed in Henry II s reign the financial and judicial measures of 1163 65 were sufficiently important for this also to be regarded as a transitional phase in his government of England     Resources in Education ,1993     Parliamentary Supremacy & Judicial Supremacy John Hatchard, Professor the University of Buckingham School of Law John Hatchard, Peter Slinn, 1999-06-10 The result of The Joint Colloquium on Parliamentary Supremacy and Judicial Independence towards a Commonwealth Model It brought together parliamentarians judges practitioners and academics in order to draft guidelines for best practice relations between Executive Parliament and Judiciary
