Approaching Dialogue Per Linell, 1998 Approaching Dialogue has its primary focus on the theoretical understanding and empirical analysis of talk in interaction It deals with conversation in general as well as talk within institutions against a backdrop of Conversation Analysis context based discourse analysis social pragmatics socio cultural theory and interdisciplinary dialogue analysis People's communicative projects and the structures and functions of talk in interaction are analyzed from the most local sequences to the comprehensive communicative activity types and genres A second aim of the book is to explore the possibilities and limitations of dialogism as a general epistemology for cognition and communication On this point it portrays the dialogical approach as a major alternative to the mainstream theories of cognition as individually based information processing communication as information transfer and language as a code Stressing aspects of interaction joint construction and cultural embeddedness and drawing upon extensive theoretical and empirical research carried out in different traditions this book aims at an integrating synthesis It is largely interdisciplinary in nature and has been written in such a way that it can be used at advanced undergraduate courses in linguistics sociopragmatics of language communication studies sociology social psychology and cognitive science About the author Per Linell holds a Ph D in linguistics and has been professor within the interdisciplinary graduate program of Communication Studies at the University of Linköping Sweden since 1981 He has published widely in the fields of discourse studies and social pragmatics of language

How to Teach Handwriting Frank Nugent Freeman, Mary Lorette Dougherty, 1923 Two mistakes of an opposite nature have been made in teaching writing The first is to expect writing to grow up incidentally without giving the child any specific training in the writing act The second is to suppose that teaching writing is some strange mysterious process which can be mastered only by special teachers who have had a large amount of technical training However writing can be taught by the grade teacher and there are strong reasons why it should be so taught Writing is an activity which the child performs in much of his her school work besides his writing lesson It is necessary that all the writing be done properly and it is the grade teacher who must see that it is properly done
