The Knowledge Gap Natalie Wexler, 2019-08-06 Essential reading for teachers education administrators and policymakers alike STARRED Library Journal The untold story of the root cause of America's education crisis It was only after years within the education reform movement that Natalie Wexler stumbled across a hidden explanation for our country's frustrating lack of progress when it comes to providing every child with a quality education The problem wasn't one of the usual scapegoats lazy teachers shoddy facilities lack of accountability It was something no one was talking about the elementary school curriculum's intense focus on decontextualized reading comprehension skills at the expense of actual knowledge In the tradition of Dale Russakoff's The Prize and Dana Goldstein's

The Teacher Wars Wexler brings together history research and compelling characters to pull back the curtain on this fundamental flaw in our education system one that fellow reformers journalists and policymakers have long overlooked and of which the general public including many parents remains unaware But The Knowledge Gap isn't just a story of what schools have gotten so wrong it also follows innovative educators who are in the process of shedding their deeply ingrained habits and describes the rewards that have come along students who are not only excited to learn but are also acquiring the knowledge and vocabulary that will enable them to succeed If we truly want to fix our education system and unlock the potential of our neediest children we have no choice but to pay attention

The End of Public Schools David W. Hursh, 2015-10-16 The End of Public Schools analyzes the effect of foundations corporations and non governmental organizations on the rise of neoliberal principles in public education By first contextualizing the privatization of education within the context of a larger educational crisis and with particular emphasis on the Gates Foundation and influential state and national politicians it describes how specific policies that limit public control are advanced across all levels Informed by a thorough understanding of issues such as standardized testing teacher tenure and charter schools David Hursh provides a political and pedagogical critique of the current school reform movement as well details about the increasing resistance efforts on the part of parents teachers and the general public

The Meritocracy Trap Daniel Markovits, 2020-09-08 A revolutionary new argument from eminent Yale Law professor Daniel Markovits attacking the false promise of meritocracy It is an axiom of American life that advantage should be earned through ability and effort Even as the country divides itself at every turn the meritocratic ideal that social and economic rewards should follow achievement rather than breeding reigns supreme Both Democrats and Republicans insistently repeat meritocratic notions Meritocracy cuts to the heart of who we are It sustains the American dream But what if both up and down the social ladder meritocracy is a sham Today meritocracy has become exactly what it was conceived to resist a mechanism for the concentration and dynastic transmission of wealth and privilege across generations Upward mobility has become a fantasy and the embattled middle classes are now more likely to sink into the working poor than to rise into the professional elite At the same time meritocracy now ensnares even those who manage to claw their way to the top requiring rich adults to work with crushing intensity exploiting their expensive educations in order to extract a return All this is not the result of deviations or retreats from meritocracy but rather stems directly from meritocracy's successes This is the radical argument that Daniel Markovits prosecutes with rare force Markovits is well placed to expose the sham of meritocracy Having spent his life at elite universities he knows from the inside the corrosive system we are trapped within Markovits also knows that if we understand that meritocratic inequality produces near universal harm we can cure it When The Meritocracy Trap reveals the inner workings of the meritocratic machine it also illuminates the first steps outward towards a new world that might once again afford dignity and prosperity to the American people

Eastman,2017-03-16 While some people find new opportunities in the postindustrial economy many working class men find their social and economic well being collapse as blue collar jobs are outsourced and offshored to the global labor market Faced with limited options to earn a living wage many of these blue collar workers are instead changing who they are embracing a deviant rebellious identity expressed by the contemporary southern rock revival musicians studied in this book Although loosely based in the traditional culture and lifestyle of the southeastern United States contemporary southernness has little to do with region but instead is a way to rebel from the very institutions blue collar men traditionally used as the basis of their masculine pride family education employment military service and religion This contemporary form of southernness reflected in their music also involves deviance as many of these men adorn themselves with the highly controversial confederate flag binge drink alcohol brawl with one another and use drugs Combining interviews participant observation and a lyrical analysis this book explores these aspects of rebellious southernness through music as it exists in the ideal sense and as individual men try to live up to these subcultural ideals in their daily lives The southern rock revival is a new social movement carving out a place for an alternative way to live while simultaneously perpetuating stereotypes about poor men reinforcing social disadvantage and marginalization round the clock Cowen saturation right now Malcolm Gladwell Since Alexis de Tocqueville restlessness has been accepted as a signature American trait Our willingness to move take risks and adapt to change have produced a dynamic economy and a tradition of innovation from Ben Franklin to Steve Jobs The problem according to legendary blogger economist and best selling author Tyler Cowen is that Americans today have broken from this tradition we re working harder than ever to avoid change We re moving residences less marrying people more like ourselves and choosing our music and our mates based on algorithms that wall us off from anything that might be too new or too different Match com matches us in love Spotify and Pandora match us in music Facebook matches us to just about everything else Of course this matching culture brings tremendous positives music we like partners who make us happy neighbors who want the same things We re more comfortable But according to Cowen there are significant collateral downsides attending this comfort among them heightened inequality and segregation and decreased incentives to innovate and create The Complacent Class argues that this cannot go on forever We are postponing change due to our near sightedness and extreme desire for comfort but ultimately this will make change when it comes harder The forces unleashed by the Great Stagnation will eventually lead to a major fiscal and budgetary crisis impossibly expensive rentals for our most attractive cities worsening of residential segregation and a decline in our work ethic The only way to avoid this difficult future is for Americans to force themselves out of their comfortable slumber to embrace their restless tradition again At the Margins of the Global Market Phillip A. Hough,2022-01-27 Hough recasts Colombia s endemic rural violence in a world historical perspective that connects local labour and development dynamics to the arc of US global hegemony This book will appeal to scholars of labour studies agrarian studies development globalisation Latin America political science political economy and economic sociology

Burdens of Freedom Lawrence M. Mead,2019-04-23 Burdens of Freedom presents a new and radical interpretation of America and its challenges The United States is an individualist society where most people seek to realize personal goals and values out in the world This unusual inner driven culture was the chief reason why first Europe then Britain and finally America came to lead the world But today our deepest problems derive from groups and nations that reflect the more passive deferential temperament of the non West The long term poor and many immigrants have difficulties assimilating in America mainly because they are less inner driven than the norm Abroad the United States faces challenges from Asia which is collective minded and also from many poorly governed countries in the developing world The chief threat to American leadership is no longer foreign rivals like China but the decay of individualism within our own society The great divide is between the individualist West for which life is a project and the rest of the world in which most people seek to survive rather than achieve This difference although clear in research on world cultures has been ignored in virtually all previous scholarship on American power and public policy both at home and abroad Burdens of Freedom is the first book to recognize that difference It casts new light on America s greatest struggles It re evaluates the entire Western tradition which took individualism for granted How to respond to cultural difference is the greatest test of our times     Implications of Race and Racism in Student Evaluations of Teaching LaVada U. Taylor,2021-05-07 Implications of Race and Racism in Student Evaluations of Teaching The Hate U Give highlights practices in higher education such as using student evaluations of teaching to inform merit increases contract renewals and promotion and tenure decisions The collection deconstructs student course feedback to reveal implications of race and racism inherent in student responses mirroring learned behavior situated within the social political context of US culture and K12 schools Learned behavior fostering racial hate given to students informing and shaping classroom experiences with BIPOC faculty To this end the work speaks to systemic racial inequity in higher education learning spaces and possibilities of reimagining student evaluations as a cry for a more just and equitable society     Geographic inequalities in health and mortality: Factors contributing to trends and differentials Irma Elo,Shannon Monnat,2023-07-03     Contemporary Muslim Girlhoods in India Saba Hussain,2019-06-06 Based on empirical research in India this book presents a post colonial feminist analysis of subjectivities available to Muslim girls and the ways in which they are inhabited and negotiated Examining government education policies together with the narratives of teachers and parents the author explores the manner in which gender class ethnicity and religion intersect both to confer certain subjectivities and to challenge or reinforce the conferred subjectivities A study of the imposition of subjectivities that label Muslim girls as economically subordinate and culturally different Contemporary Muslim Girlhoods in India analyses Muslim girls reconstructions of self through a combination of reflexivity resilience and agency and conformity Drawing on the thought of Pierre Bourdieu and Nancy Fraser this volume offers an original contribution to the study of gendered minorities institutions and relationships in post colonial contexts and an alternative to identitarian politics or cultural explanations of Muslim women s educational deprivation in India As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and gender studies with interests in education class religion and identity     Education Policy as a Roadmap for Achieving the Sustainable Development Goals Alison Taysum,2019-12-06 The 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs have been agreed globally in an unprecedented ambitious and innovative agenda for prosperity and peace for people and planet This book provides a roadmap for achieving the paradigm shift to achieve the SGDs from an Educational perspective
