Barton Gellman

Grade12 Ma June Time Table 2015:

Sociology David M. Newman, 2018-07-26 This new Brief Sixth Edition of David Newman's text is the streamlined version of Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life with the same goal to be a textbook that in the author's words reads like a real book. Newman shows to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences. Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that exists out there independently of themselves; it is a human creation that is planned, maintained, or altered by individuals. Instead of surveying every subfield in sociology, this text focuses on the structural features of society: the social construction of self and identity and social inequality in the context of social institutions. The new edition includes examples and analysis of contemporary events and trends including the changes in our national politics brought about by the 2016 presidential election, increasing societal attention paid to fatal encounters between police and unarmed people of color or incidents of sexual harassment and assault, school shootings, and the debates over gun ownership. The continued dramatic growth of communication technology, particularly social networking sites,

Dark Mirror Barton Gellman, 2020-05-19 From the three-time Pulitzer Prize-winning author of the New York Times bestseller Angler who unearthed the deepest secrets of Edward Snowden's NSA archive, the first master narrative of the surveillance state that emerged after 9/11 and why it matters, based on scores of hours of conversation with Snowden and groundbreaking reportage in Washington, London, Moscow, and Silicon Valley, Edward Snowden chose three journalists to tell the stories in his Top Secret trove of NSA documents: Barton Gellman of The Washington Post, Glenn Greenwald of The Guardian, and filmmaker Laura Poitras, all of whom would share the Pulitzer Prize for Public Service. Poitras went on to direct the Oscar-winning Citizen Four. Greenwald wrote an instant memoir and cast himself as a pugilist on Snowden's behalf. Barton Gellman took his own path: Snowden and his documents were the beginning, not the end, of a story he had prepared his whole life to tell. More than 20 years as a top investigative journalist armed him with deep sources in national security and high technology. New sources reached out from government and industry, making contact on the same kinds of secret, anonymous channels that Snowden used. Gellman's old reporting notes unlocked new puzzles in the NSA archive. Long days and evenings with Snowden in Moscow revealed a complex character who fit none of the stock images imposed on him by others. Gellman now brings his unique access and storytelling gifts to a true life spy tale that touches us all. Snowden captured the public imagination but left millions of people unsure what to think. Who is the man really? How did he beat the world's most advanced surveillance agency at its own game? Is government and corporate spying as bad as he says? Dark Mirror is the master narrative we have waited for, told with authority and an inside view of extraordinary events. Within it is a personal account of the obstacles facing the author, beginning with Gellman's discovery of his own name in the NSA document trove. Google notifies him that a foreign government is trying to compromise his account. A trusted technical adviser finds anomalies on his laptop Sophisticated impostors approach Gellman with counterfeit documents attempting to divert or discredit his work Throughout Dark Mirror the author describes an escalating battle against unknown digital adversaries forcing him to mimic their tradecraft in self defense Written in the vivid scenes and insights that marked Gellman's bestselling Angler Dark Mirror is an inside account of the surveillance industrial revolution and its discontents fighting back against state and corporate intrusions into our most private spheres Along the way it tells the story of a government leak unrivaled in drama since All the President's Men United States Code , Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform Coert Loock, Vanessa Scherman, 2019-11-20 Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform provides background information on large scale examination systems more generally and the South African examination specifically It traces the reforms in the education system of South Africa since 1994 and provides a description of the advances in modern test theory that could be considered for future standard setting endeavours At the heart of the book is the debate on whether the current standard of education in Africa is good enough If not then how can it be improved The aim of this book is to provide a point of departure for discussions on standard setting quality assurance equating of examinations and assessment approaches From this point of departure recommendations for practices in general and the exit level Grade 12 examination results in particular can be made This book is ideal reading for principals teachers academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment measurement and evaluation Crisis in Higher Education Mark A. Drowning by Accident Elizabeth Meinhard, 2022-02-15 Drowning By Accident explains why it is so easy to drown where accidents happen and how to save lives by early rescue and resuscitation More than 600 people die by drowning in Britain every year Swimming is promoted as a particularly safe form of exercise so that swimmers forget or ignore the dangers of frigid lakes swollen rivers incoming tides or outgoing rip currents Drowning accidents take place because we don't recognise water as a hostile environment We overestimate the strength and endurance of our bodies and underestimate the power and deceptiveness of water Year after year victims lose their lives in typical drowning accidents often sinking so quickly and silently that nearby family friends and onlookers fail to notice the tragedy taking place close beside them Babies drown in baths Toddlers drown in garden ponds School children fall off rafts Teenagers strike too far from the shore Pensioners wade into rivers to save their dogs Victims often die within minutes of sinking beneath the surface A quarter of those who reach hospital alive will also die while others survive with severe permanent brain damage This means that it is vitally important for parents grandparents teachers lifeguards and lawmakers to recognise the risks and prevent drowning accidents before they take place
