Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 Maringe, Felix, Prew, Martin, 2015-05-05 Twenty Years of Education Transformation in Gauteng 1994 to 2014 An Independent Review presents a collection of 15 important essays on different aspects of education in Gauteng since the advent of democracy in 1994 These essays talk to what a provincial education department does and how and why it does these things whether it be about policy resourcing or implementing projects Each essay is written by one or more specialist in the relevant focus area The book is written to be accessible to the general reader as well as being informative and an essential resource for the specialist reader It sheds light on aspects of how a provincial department operates and why and with what consequences certain decisions have been made in education over the last 20 turbulent years both nationally and provincially There has been no attempt to fit the book's chapters into a particular ideological or educational paradigm and as a result the reader will find differing views on various aspects of the Gauteng Department of Education's present and past We leave the reader to decide to what extent the GDE has fulfilled its educational mandate over the last 20 years South African national bibliography, 1999 Classified list with author and title index Questions and Replies of the National Council of Provinces South Africa. Parliament (1994-). National Council of Provinces, 2002 Primary Education in Crisis Brahm Fleisch, 2008 In the past decade the national preoccupation has been on the crisis in secondary schools Lurking behind the intractable problem of low pass rates the dysfunctional schools and the small number of higher grade mathematics and science graduates is the calamity in primary education Drawing on the work of researchers in a range of fields including psychology sociology anthropology linguistics economics the health sciences and mathematics education this book documents the depth and scope of the primary education crisis and provides a comprehensive and rigorous explanation of its causes Primary education in crisis pulls together the wealth of research on health poverty resources language and teaching as factors in academic achievement in reading writing and mathematics At the centre of the book is an analysis of the published studies that systematically document what teachers teach and fail to teach and why it is that teaching is at the heart of the crisis in primary education The author suggests that there are no quick fixes but only hard choices and that for reform to succeed it must be evidence based Keys to Educational Psychology Liesel Ebersöhn, 2004-06 If you are curious about Educational Psychology this book is for you You can read the chapters in any sequence or you can start at the beginning because this book provides myriad keys to the wonderful variety of themes in Educational Psychology today Written by leading psychologists researchers and practitioners this book focuses on all the positive constructs in Educational Psychology and reflects on the wide range of strengths assets and resources available to the educational psychologist Each chapter presents an integrated overview cutting edge definitions of key concepts quotations from professionals and students and reflective questions to guide your practice Written primarily by South Africans this book is particularly relevant to the local environment and presents practical application strategies Indigenous knowledge is infused with international perspectives and equal emphasis is placed on the learner and on the social context on assessment and intervention and on theory and practice The book is extremely accessible to students but will also be invaluable for teachers psychologists researchers and health professionals Drum, 2008 The Politics and Governance of Basic Education Brian Levy, Robert Cameron, Ursula Hoadley, Vinodhan Naidoo, 2018-09-05 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations All over the world economic inclusion has risen to the top of the development discourse A well performing education system is central to achieving inclusive development but the challenge of improving educational outcomes has proven to be unexpectedly difficult Access to education has increased but quality remains low with weaknesses in governance comprising an important part of the explanation The Politics and Governance of Basic Education explores the balance between hierarchical and horizontal institutional arrangements for the public provision of basic education Using the vivid example of South Africa a country that had ambitious goals at the outset of its transition from apartheid to democracy it explores how the interaction of politics and institutions affects educational outcomes By examining lessons learned from how South Africa failed to achieve many of its goals it constructs an innovative alternative strategy for making process combining practical steps to achieve incremental gains to re orient the system towards learning Marking Matric Vijay Reddy, 2006 The past ten years in South Africa has seen many changes in education the creation of a single department of education common examinations for all learners in public schools in the country a new outcomes based education curriculum which was introduced to learners in the general education and training phase since 1998 and will be introduced to the further education and training phase from 2006 To evaluate the success of these changes South African researchers still use the indicator of student achievement The matriculation examination is the visible high profile and public performance indicator Every year parents learners teachers researchers government officials policymakers and the general public get involved in the debate around the matric examination with the most frequently asked questions being Did the pass rate go up Are standards dropping Are the results real or have they been manipulated How is our education system doing Are we meeting the development goals What should the matriculation examination of the future look like participants from government national and provincial Finding Afrikaans Christo van Rensburg, 2018-10-01 A new book on Afrikaans s African origins Finding Afrikaans a brand new book by Christo van Rensburg is now available Where did Afrikaans begin Who spoke Afrikaans first Was the Cape really Dutch How did the Khoi and the Portuguese trade with each other What role did slaves play in the origin of Afrikaans What is the influence of townships in Afrikaans How did the various treks into the heart of the country affect Afrikaans The language contact that had followed even the fear of language contact is one of Afrikaans s important stories Writing in the Afrikaans language began in different and interesting ways with strong influences from the Islam Afrikaans s standardisation is the source of many different and divergent stories Finding Afrikaans is also available in Afrikaans as Van Afrikaans gepraat These books were made possible by a generous donation from the Afrikaanse Taalraad ATR They coproduced by Malan Media and LAPA Publishers LAPA will be marketing and distributing the books Dr Willa Boezak said about Van Rensburg's previous book It had changed my life It had turned me into a language activist The ATR the Afrikaans Language Museum and Monument and the Heritage Foundation are joining forces to market the books These books will also feature regularly at language seminars run by the ATKV and DAK In the Netherlands there is a huge great interest in the book and this English translation has created an interest among sociologists from different continents Getting Schools Working Nick Taylor, Johan Muller, Penny Vinjevold, 2003 A systematic review of research projects into the state of education in South Africa
