Learning to Improve Anthony S. Bryk, Louis M. Gomez, Alicia Grunow, Paul G. LeMahieu, 2015-03-01 As a field education has largely failed to learn from experience Time after time promising education reforms fall short of their goals and are abandoned as other promising ideas take their place In Learning to Improve the authors argue for a new approach Rather than implementing fast and learning slow they believe educators should adopt a more rigorous approach to improvement that allows the field to learn fast to implement well Using ideas borrowed from improvement science the authors show how a process of disciplined inquiry can be combined with the use of networks to identify adapt and successfully scale up promising interventions in education Organized around six core principles the book shows how networked improvement communities can bring together researchers and practitioners to accelerate learning in key areas of education Examples include efforts to address the high rates of failure among students in community college remedial math courses and strategies for improving feedback to novice teachers Learning to Improve offers a new paradigm for research and development in education that promises to be a powerful driver of improvement for the nation s schools and colleges

Racialized Schools Jesse A. Brinson, Shannon D. Smith, 2014-01-03 While racism continues to be a persistent and pervasive issue in our schools nationwide the professionals charged with creating safe and nurturing educational environments have few resources available to address racism directly Racialized Schools is on the leading edge of books that do just that and includes the latest research and praxis to help school personnel confront racism in a professional manner A national qualitative survey of students school counselors teachers and administrators sets the stage by providing readers with a 360 degree picture of today s schools and the many ways racism creeps into the lives of our students The authors present a number of different models and perspectives on understanding and addressing racism beginning with their own personal and professional experiences Significant attention is also given to empowering school personnel and students to become racially aware sensitive and competent to address racism and racial conflicts in schools Racialized Schools is not only a comprehensive look at racism within our schools it is also a practical tool for use by teachers school counselors administrators etc for implementing preventative measures to combat racism directly
