Parallel Curriculum Units for Language Arts, Grades 6-12 Jeanne H. Purcell, Jann H. Leppien, 2009-08-25 The Parallel Curriculum Model PCM holds the power to help students and teachers see the whole of what they are learning We invite practitioners to read more about this model and join us on a professional journey that we believe will yield that joy and wisdom that comes from seeing the whole To address the varying needs of teachers across the K 12 grade span as well as different content areas we decided to create a series of curriculum units based on PCM that could be used by practitioners It is our hope that the lessons not only underscore important and discipline specific content but also illuminate the four parallels in unique and enduring ways From the Introduction Design exemplary language arts lessons based on the Parallel Curriculum Model Want to create rigorous learning opportunities for students in language arts based on a deeper understanding of pedagogy and curriculum design As demonstrated in the best selling book The Parallel Curriculum the Parallel Curriculum Model PCM allows teachers to determine student performance levels and design intellectual challenges that help students develop expertise in specific subject areas Parallel Curriculum Units for Language Arts Grades 6 12 provides sample language arts units written by practicing teachers to demonstrate what high quality curriculum looks like within a PCM framework Covering a variety of topics including narrative voice literary criticism and writing original pieces these field tested units each contain Teacher rationales explaining the unit design Connections to concepts skills and national or state standards Step by step directions for delivering the lessons and unit Modification strategies assessments and reproducibles Use these examples to design your own units and deepen your understanding of how the PCM framework helps tailor curriculum to the abilities interests and learning preferences of each learner The Interdependence of Teaching and Learning Bryant Griffith,Douglas J.

Loveless,2013-03-01 The varied chapters of this book seek to capture the complexities of teaching and learning in today s schools and they share an interest in exploring the influences of knowledge construction in the moment and over time Teaching and learning are human processes interrelated and dynamic We assembled this collection to unpack what it means to teach and to learn teasing out some of the implications and challenges of such complicated educational processes that are often misconstrued as causal or linear As educators currently residing in the United States we find this a particularly pressing agenda given the current focus on common core standards and reducing teaching and learning to conceptual and pedagogical step by step procedures Our primary concern in putting together this book was to provide a conceptual and political foundation from which to construct and defend understandings and practices of teaching and learning that embody the complexity of educational endeavors and relationships The isolation of teaching from learning and the othering of both teachers and students one from the other suggests that knowledge is synonymous with information This book challenges such assumptions The project underlying this text can be seen as a means of rethinking how teachers and students perspectives of practice and curriculum influence what learning opportunities are provided to students Chapters written by established and new thinkers in the field of education demonstrate the ways in which teachers reformulate relationships between teaching and learning in school settings Our second objective is to examine local constructions of knowledge over time and how those constructions are consequential for teacher and student learning By examining patterns of practice and processes of knowledge construction in elementary secondary and undergraduate classrooms the authors of these chapters lay a foundation for examining commonalities and differences in the construction of knowledge and practices across educational levels disciplines and in school and outof school settings Mapping Comprehensive Units to the ELA Common Core Standards, K-5 Kathy Tuchman Glass,2012-04-26 Consultant and former teacher Glass helps K 5 teachers make sense of the new Common Core State Standards in English language arts ELA and presents numerous classroom activities differentiation ideas and rubrics She introduces a process for developing a unit of study using the ELA Common Core Standards and includes a template with each key component explained in detail There is also a lesson design template and sample lessons using the template The website provides reproducibles for classroom use Annotation 2012 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Poetry and Fairy Tales Amy Price Azano,Tracy C.
