

FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING REVIEW

- The principles, which constitute the ground rules for financial reporting, are termed as generally accepted accounting principles. To qualify as generally accepted, an accounting principle:
 - must guide corporate managers in the preparation of financial statements which should be understood by widely scattered stockholders.
 - must guide corporate managers in the preparation of financial statements which will be used in making collective bargaining agreements with trade unions.
 - must guide entrepreneurs in the choice of investments.
 - must receive substantial authoritative support from the public and the members of the profession. D
- In accounting, those standards and practices that have won acceptance because of their logic and proven usefulness are referred to as:
 - accounting dogmas
 - accounting principles
 - accounting procedures
 - accounting theories B
- Financial statements that are expressed assuming a stable monetary unit are:
 - general price-level financial statements.
 - historical peso financial statements.
 - current value financial statements.
 - fair-value financial statements. B
- As compared with other valuation alternatives that are used in the preparation of general-purpose financial statements, historical cost is more:
 - objective.
 - relevant.
 - indicative of the entity's purchasing power.
 - conservative. A
- The following information is shown in the accounting records of Manolito Company for the year 2008:

Balances as of January 1:

Cash	P620,000
Accounts receivable	670,000

Payments of accounts (530,000 + 5,750,000* - 480,000)	(5,800,000)
Payment of various operating expenses	(1,070,000)
Cash balance, December 31	P1,490,000
* 7,980,000 + 780,000 - 860,000

- The cash or operating cycle refers to:
 - the length of time that elapses between an outlay of cash for resources and the receipt of cash from the sale of goods or services
 - the length of time that elapses between the time an item is purchased and payment is made
 - the length of time it takes to collect receivables from customers who have been extended special credit terms
 - none A
- The cash balance your company reports should be increased if in doing the bank reconciliation discover:
 - a note receivable has been collected for you by the bank
 - not all of the checks written this period have yet cleared the bank
 - a check from one of your customers has been returned for insufficiency of funds
